tion, but he has contemplated relinquishing the candidancy for some months. It has been understood from the day of the convention meeting that Bowmanville Liberals were disappointed with the choice, and murmurings have been rife ever since. A strong factor for the walkerville man, who was begging on the strength of a fake wound, was fined $10. Judgment was reserved in the case of Lilly King, accused of stealing $13 from Mrs. Durward, the magistrate remarking that some one was committing perjury.

The afternoon was devoted to the hearing of two horse cases, neither of which was concluded. One was the suit brought by R. F. Robinson and W. A. Briggs to recover $1200 paid by them to Webster Haynes and W. E.
