ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE

Proposed Amendments to Assessment Act to Be Discussed by Committee.

Subjects of a varied and complex character are to be discussed by the special committee appointed at the last session of the legislature, which meets at the parliament buildings on November 23.

The object of the committee is to pass upon several suggested amendments to the present assessment act, which have been incorporated in bills from time to time proposing, viz.:—

1. To increase the exemption on personal earnings.
2. To make clubs and express companies liable to business assessment in all cases.
3. To reduce the business assessment of manufacturers and certain other classes of business.
4. To abolish the business assessment of retail merchants.
5. To give power to court of Revision to remit or reduce business assessments in certain cases.
6. To change the assessment of farm lands in cities, towns and villages.
7. To make it clear that telephone and telegraph companies are liable to business assessment.
8. To assess the substructures, superstructures, rails, ties, poles and other property of a steam railway on the roadway or right of way.
9. To tax the dividends of non-resident stockholders in the hands of the company.
10. To tax improvement values at a lower rate than land values.

Any special interests that require a hearing on any point under discussion will be allowed representation.
