Church held its harvest thanksgiving celebration vesterday, there being a full congregation in attendance at all the services. At the communion administration at 8 o'clock a.m. the rector, Rev. S. Le Kovan Sweatman dedicated a "Bread chest" for use at the communion services. It is another donation of the Altar Guild.

For Enlisted members.

The honor roll appeared in the church for the first time.

The rector preached in the morning and Prof Morris of Trinity College occupied the pulpit in the evening. The church was admirably decorated and appropriate hymns sung for the occasion.

Over 300 children participated in the control of the Deaconess' Home, Toronto.

The subject chosen was taken from the ninth verse of the sixth chapter of St. John's Gospel—There is a lad here, which hath five loaves and two fishes.

Altho this is a cormin text, it was clothed in a new form by Mr. Hull, who gave a very practical and soul inspiring sermon on personal service and our need of having more faith and gratitude toward God. He pictured the old scene at the head of Lake Galilee as an illustration of the need of more faith and whole souled consecration.

The evening service taken by Rev. L. B. Wallwin of Somerville Ayenue Methodist Church, Toronto, was also a soul inspiring service. His subject being both appropriate and forceful.

A large congregation attended both services. This church, like many others of the district, has a very large honor roll which will be sho this paper at a later date.
