

ALLEGED SPIRITS TALK TO LIVING

East End Church Hears Many Answers Given Thru
Medium.

The spirits of those who have passed thru death to another plane allegedly communicated with their earthly brothers at the evening service of the East End Spiritualist Church, 186 Parliament street, Pastor Miranda, who went into a clairvoyant state, delivered the messages and without exception those who received them were able to recognize who was speaking.

Before going into the trance condition, Mr. Miranda read several passages from the Bible on which he based his spiritualistic beliefs, and at the same time made a brief address in which he informed those present that he had only been inside of a school—and that was a public school—once in his life. There was only for half a day; yet he could read and write. His inspiration was derived from the Bible, he declared, and he thanked God and the spirit world for this. He asked those present should he deliver any messages from spirits who were not recognized by the person to whom he was speaking, that he be informed of his mistake, but during the course of the meeting the spirits who were communicating thru him, and whose first names he gave, were recognized by those to whom they were speaking.

When a spirit or spirits wished to communicate with someone present Mr. Miranda would point out that person, telling them Mark, Walter or Mary Ann wished to speak to them. He would then ask if they recognized the name as that of some relative who had passed into the spirit world. After securing an affirmative answer, Mr. Miranda would proceed to deliver the message, taking fast all the while, and only pausing at intervals to allow the person to affirm or deny what he had said.

More Than One Tom.
To one lady he said: "Tom wishes to speak to you. When he was on this plane you used to call him Tommy. Do you recognize the name?" "My father's name was Tom," said the lady. "Yes, there is your father and another Tom, whom you used to call Tommy. Am I not right?"

After a short period of contemplation, the woman informed Mr. Miranda that there was another Tom whom she used to call Tommy. He was her brother-in-law and was on the spirit plane.

That she contemplated a trip across the ocean, but was unable to see her way clear, was the message given by the medium to another woman. Mr. Miranda stated that the spirits would assist her if she would but have patience.

Announcement was made that the church would close for the summer on Thursday next.

GET AWAY FOR DOMINION DAY.

Excellent Service—Special Rates Via Niagara-St. Catharines Line.

With the new convenient service in effect via N. St. C. & T. Line, between Toronto and Port Dalhousie, opportunity is afforded for a very pleasant holiday trip to Niagara Falls and Niagara Peninsula points.

Boats leave Toronto, daylight saving time, 8:30 a.m., 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. daily, except Sunday, with radial connection at Port Dalhousie for Niagara Falls and Buffalo. Returning boat leaves Port Dalhousie daily, except Sunday, daylight saving time, 8:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Special round trip fares are in effect, good until Wednesday, July 1, 1920. For the afternoon sail leaving Toronto by the 2:00 p.m. boat July 1, there is special round trip rate of $1.50, Toronto to Port Dalhousie.

For tickets and information apply City Passenger Office, 52 King Street East, Adelaide 5179, or Yonge Street Dock, Main 2553.

PICKERS ARE SCARCE IN THE FRUIT BELT

St. Catharines, June 27.—While the need of fruit pickers will not be at its highest point for ten days or two weeks, the growers are already meeting with considerable difficulty in procuring help. The Ontario labor bureau office yesterday could place 100 more pickers than were available for strawberries and early cherries. Some farmerettes are again engaged in picking berries in the western section of the peninsula, but not to the number that has gone into the field in the previous three years. The growers in the Vineland section last week secured a number of Polish pickers from Buffalo. The closing of the schools last week is expected to give some relief to the situation. Within two weeks the harvesting of raspberries, currants and cherries will be in full swing.

SIX PERSONS HURT BY MOTOR CARS

Five Drivers Arrested Charged With Criminal Negligence.

Six persons were injured in motor car accidents that happened on the streets between Saturday and Sunday evening. Five drivers of cars were placed under arrest on charges of criminal negligence and reckless driving.

Alonso Kirtain, 10 Barnbridge avenue, was placed under arrest at 9:45 Saturday night, charged with criminal negligence. Kirtain was driving a motor truck north on Niagara street, and when nearing Tecumseh he ran down seven-year-old Alex. Paneswick, 135 Niagara street. Mrs. Annie Paneswick, mother of the boy, ran out on the road to try and save him from being struck down, and was herself hit by the truck. She was taken to her home and her condition is serious. The child was badly shaken up.

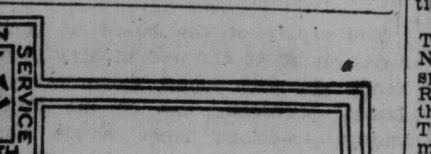

Donald Howe, aged 12 years, 56 Sullivan street, is in the Hospital for Sick Children with a broken shoulder and wrist, the result of being run down yesterday by an automobile on College near Major street. Joseph Frainger, Paisley Gardens, York county, was locked up in Clarence street police station by Constable Driscoll, charged with criminal negligence. Grainger claims the child ran in front of his car, but it is alleged by the police Grainger had been drinking.

Thomas Smith, 461 East Queen street, was badly shaken up Saturday night when he was struck down by a motor car driven by Ernest Purdey, 115 Coxwell avenue. Smith was taken to his home while Purdey is held for criminal negligence. Ball was arrested Saturday night for the release from custody of Purdey. The accident occurred at Queen and Sumach streets, while Smith was crossing from the south to the north side of the street.

Driver Not Responsible.
When a motor car struck a bicycle on which he was riding at Carlaw and Eastern avenue, Albert Range, aged 13, of 247 Rhodes avenue, was slightly injured. The boy was riding south on Carlaw avenue when the collision occurred. James A. Rennie, 1 Rideley Gardens, was not held responsible by the police for the accident.

16:20 Saturday night Jack Burns, 268 Dunn avenue, sustained scalp wounds when he was thrown from his bicycle by a motor car on Brock avenue, near Shirley street. The car was driven by Fred Black, 38 Tyndal avenue.

Tony Motto, 238 Markham street, was arrested Saturday night by Plainclothesman Clarkson on a charge of reckless driving. Motto, the police say, was driving west on Dundas street, and when other cars tried to pass his he would steer in their direction, forcing them to either slow down or drive up on the sidewalk.

Thrift vs. Silk Stockings and Shirts

You will be immeasurably better off by placing your money in a UNION TRUST interest-bearing savings account, instead of spending it on luxuries.

Dollars saved now will have a greatly increased buying power as world conditions become more normal.

Union Trust Company

HENRY F. GOODERHAM, President

TORONTO, Cor. Bay and Richmond Sts.
WINNIPEG, MAN. LONDON, ENGLAND

4% on Savings—Withdrawable by Cheque

SHOW AMERICANS HARBOR FRONT

National Editorial Association
Amazed at Large Undertaking.

Ending up the fourth week of their tour, over 130 members of the National Editorial Association reached Toronto on Saturday morning in their special train. The members of the association first struck Canada at Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, from which point they proceeded thru the eastern provinces, touching the main cities.

On reaching Toronto, the party was entertained to breakfast by the T. Eaton Co. in their spacious dining hall, after which they became the guests of the Toronto Harbor Commission. Shortly after 11 a.m. the visitors embarked on board the harbor commission's yacht, "Bethelma," which was just put in commission last week. A tour was made to give the delegates a general idea of the harbor operations already completed, and those still to be concluded. In addition to the general vice-chairman of the commission, Mr. R. S. Gourlay, a number of the engineering staff and a number of those associated with the work of the commission were present and answered endless questions asked by very inquiring southerners, who displayed a keen interest in all the multitudinous activities of the ambitious scheme of reclamation.

Twenty Firms Want Sites.
Arriving at Sunnyside, the party was entertained to luncheon at the pavilion on the beach, where everything that was worth having was served in a very efficient manner. Vice-Chairman Gourlay presided in the absence of the chairman of the commission and answered a number of questions.

The letter is in reply to the commission's request for the views of the board upon the petition now before it for increased revenue for the railroads and expresses the opinion that "unless adequate income is allowed the railroads, the public will not only be deprived of the proper facilities, but will actually run serious risks of life and limb while traveling."

The letter is in reply to the commission's request for the views of the board upon the petition now before it for increased revenue for the railroads and expresses the opinion that "unless adequate income is allowed the railroads, the public will not only be deprived of the proper facilities, but will actually run serious risks of life and limb while traveling."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

Progressive City.
President Wilcox, who replied for the visitors and thought there should be no differences between the States and Canada.

He said that his party had visited most of the cities in eastern Canada and he wanted to assure the harbor commission and the citizens of Toronto that our city was the most Americanized city they had visited.

It should be mentioned that the harbor commission yacht, "Bethelma," is to be placed at the disposal of the citizens of Toronto, twice a week during the present summer, to give them an opportunity of viewing the operations carried on in their midst.

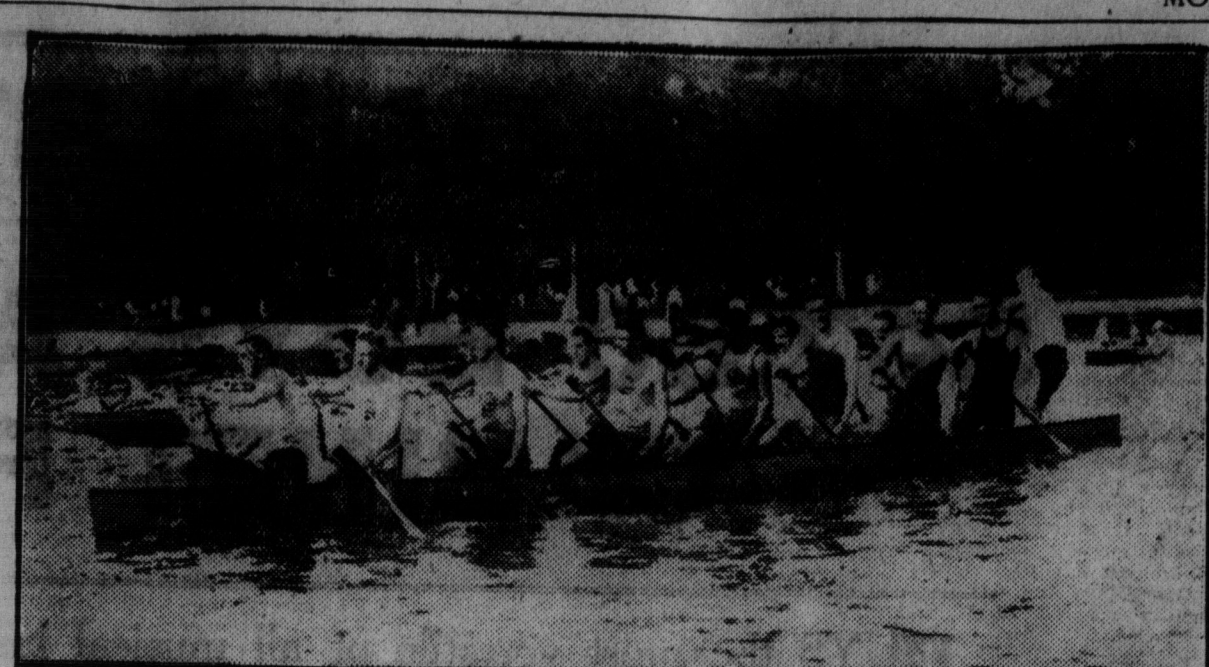

The members of the association left Toronto early yesterday morning for Niagara Falls, traveling in the palatial special train of the Canadian National Railways, which has been their home since their arrival in Canada two weeks ago. This train which has been the object of most favorable comment is composed of equipment all of which has been made in Canada, and includes steel sleeping cars and dining cars of the most modern type. The National Editorial Association on its tour has visited the Maritime Provinces, the cities of Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa, the mining district of the Great Lakes and the Lake of the St. Lawrence, and on completing the tour of western Ontario and the Niagara Peninsula will have traveled nearly four thousand miles over the lines of the Canadian National and Trunk systems. The editors on their visit to the Laurentide and the Abitibi pulp and paper plants have gained much information of value to them in regard to the newspaper situation.

SEVEN BURNED TO DEATH.
Elwood City, Pa., June 27.—Seven persons were burned to death in a fire which destroyed Kraus Block, in Lawrence avenue, here early today. The origin of the fire is unknown. The dead are a mother, Mrs. James Carlin, and her six children, ranging in age from eleven years to five weeks.

MADOC BOY DROWNS.
Guelville, Ont., June 27.—(Special).—A boy named Rogers, aged 12 years, son of Mr. William Rogers, of Madoc, was yesterday drowned in Seymour's Creek, which flows thru the village. He was bathing with some companions when he got beyond his depth.

SASKATCHEWAN PAPERS
SEND DEPUTATION EAST
Montreal, June 27.—The newspapers of Saskatchewan have sent a deputation east with a commission to interview the government and paper mill operators here in an endeavor to secure some working arrangement in which they will find assurance of getting an adequate paper supply.

CONEY'S FIRST BIG DAY.
New York, June 27.—One death by drowning, a boy 20, ambulance calls for bathers whose feet had been cut by broken glass, and a crowd of 350,000 pleasure seekers of whom 100,000 took a "dip" in the ocean, were items in the police report tonight of Coney Island's "first big day" of the summer.

Parkdale war canoe paddlers, winners at the Toronto Canoe Club regatta, on Saturday last.

RAILWAY REVENUE MUST BE INCREASED

Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities Writes Interstate Commission.

Boston, June 27.—The Massachusetts department of public utilities, in a letter to the interstate commerce commission, made public tonight, favors increased revenue for the railroads and expresses the opinion that "unless adequate income is allowed the railroads, the public will not only be deprived of the proper facilities, but will actually run serious risks of life and limb while traveling."

The letter is in reply to the commission's request for the views of the board upon the petition now before it for increased revenue for the railroads and expresses the opinion that "unless adequate income is allowed the railroads, the public will not only be deprived of the proper facilities, but will actually run serious risks of life and limb while traveling."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

The board says it feels "from every point of view, that serious consequences will follow starving of the roads, and the interstate commerce commission should grant the railroads sufficient revenue to enable them to put their functions properly and adequately and to serve the public in proper order."

FARMERS CHOOSE JAMES CAMERON

(Continued From Page 1).

present Ontario government have done more than any government before them (applause). They have legislated in the interests of the common people, and it is up to us to get rid of the old, rotten Union government at Ottawa." (Hear, hear!)

Meant Great Sacrifice.
W. J. Gardhouse had had some hesitancy about accepting the nomination. If chosen it meant great sacrifice, but he had accepted it intending to put up one of the stiffest fights ever put up in West York. Now, he was behind Mr. Cameron as enthusiastically as the he was the candidate himself.

"I just wish to go after the Union government a little," he said, amid laughter. "I think we have no government at all. They appear to me a body of men not working for the masses and the classes at all, but in their own interests entirely. The revelations of the commerce board show that."

and the laboring men cannot stand together," he continued. "I want to tell Premier Drury let his government during the present year, and he has put three some of the sanest legislation ever enacted. Personally I know Premier Drury, having gone to school with him. If he had a little larger majority, he would have a record unequalled by any premier."

Mr. Gardhouse concluded his address by declaring his opposition to foreign labor, and he predicted that the U.F.O. and the labor party, being both producers, would have no trouble standing together.

Beginning to Know.
The address of James Cameron, the choice of the convention, was short, "I am out to fight to the end," he said. "In 1917 we supported Union government, but we thought that when the war was over they would return to their respective parties. We can do without Mr. Rowell and some others who have no party. (Applause.)" It has been said that if a farmer were elected for West York he would have no pull at Ottawa. There'll be enough farmers there next election to give honest legislation, and pull will not be needed." He himself had come prepared to support any man chosen by the convention.

What is going on. They are reading the papers," said J. G. Whitmore. He was sorry the situation at Ottawa was as it is at the present time. An ideal hospital in the county is now being dismantled, and 180 acres held for two years in the Township of Vaughan lies idle. "We are being told it is our duty to produce. We admit that, and we want to see that a right proportion of the responsibility is made through the country."

"If experience is necessary to govern a country," said J. H. Buckley, "I do not think any government could make such a mess as your coalition government has done at Ottawa. We desire that each and every part of the body politics shall be represented. There may be differences on the eight-hour day (as on other things), but I think the farmers will be broad enough to see that it is necessary for labor, although that time may not always be adaptable to the farmer, in the same way their apparent differences will be settled."

There were about 500 present, the two parties being formally represented by fifteen delegates each. There were no paid entertainers to keep the "ball rolling," as at most political meetings.

SOLDIER-LABOR CONVENTION SOON

Labor Committee and Soldiers to Nominate Candidate N.E. Toronto

Friday evening next will witness a convention of Soldier-Labor forces at 21 Gerrard street, headquarters of the G.A.U.V., to consider the nomination of the Soldier-Labor forces in Toronto for Northeast Toronto, the ward recently vacated by Hon. Dr. Cody, for consideration at the convention. Major Stoddard and James Higgins, the former an out-and-out soldier candidate, the latter the nominee of the Labor Representation Committee. The political horizon in labor has been clouded by the appearance of an independent labor candidate in the person of Corporal William Varley, who has a following in labor circles and who is a general organizer for the American Federation of Labor.

There are two candidates up for consideration at the convention. Major Stoddard and James Higgins, the former an out-and-out soldier candidate, the latter the nominee of the Labor Representation Committee. The political horizon in labor has been clouded by the appearance of an independent labor candidate in the person of Corporal William Varley, who has a following in labor circles and who is a general organizer for the American Federation of Labor.

SAID THE STARTER BET IS RULED OFF THE TURF

Montreal, June 27.—Furnishing the greatest surprise of the local turf this season, the stewards of the King Edward Park Jockey Club on Saturday issued a ruling barring Dr. P. E. Lalanne, a local candidate, from the turf. The ruling came as the result of a charge made by Dr. Lalanne that he knew that Starter Eddie Tribe was betting on the horses he was starting. Dr. Lalanne was given twenty-four hours to substantiate this charge, and failed to do so. The ruling has been passed to the Canadian Racing Association to place on record.

SCORE INDEMNITY RAISE.

Edmonton, June 27.—Opposition to the government's action in increasing the salaries of cabinet ministers and judges and raising the indemnity of members was voiced at a meeting of the Edmonton Great War Veterans today. Telegrams of protest have been sent to Premier Borden and members of the government.

NEW YORK EDITOR DEAD.

New York, June 27.—Josiah Kingsley Chitt, for years editor of The New York Herald, and since its merger with The New York Sun, editor of The Evening Telegram, died here today from heart disease following a nervous breakdown. He was 57 years of age.

NEW STRIKE IN LONDON

London, Ont., June 27.—The local hod carriers and building laborers went on strike today to enforce their demands for 70c an hour.

Canada's Standard Car

Immediate Delivery for a Limited Number of Buyers

The high pressure under which the average business man works, makes a motor car a necessity.

For dependability at all times, even when other methods of transportation fail—a car with the sureness and stability of the McLaughlin should be selected.

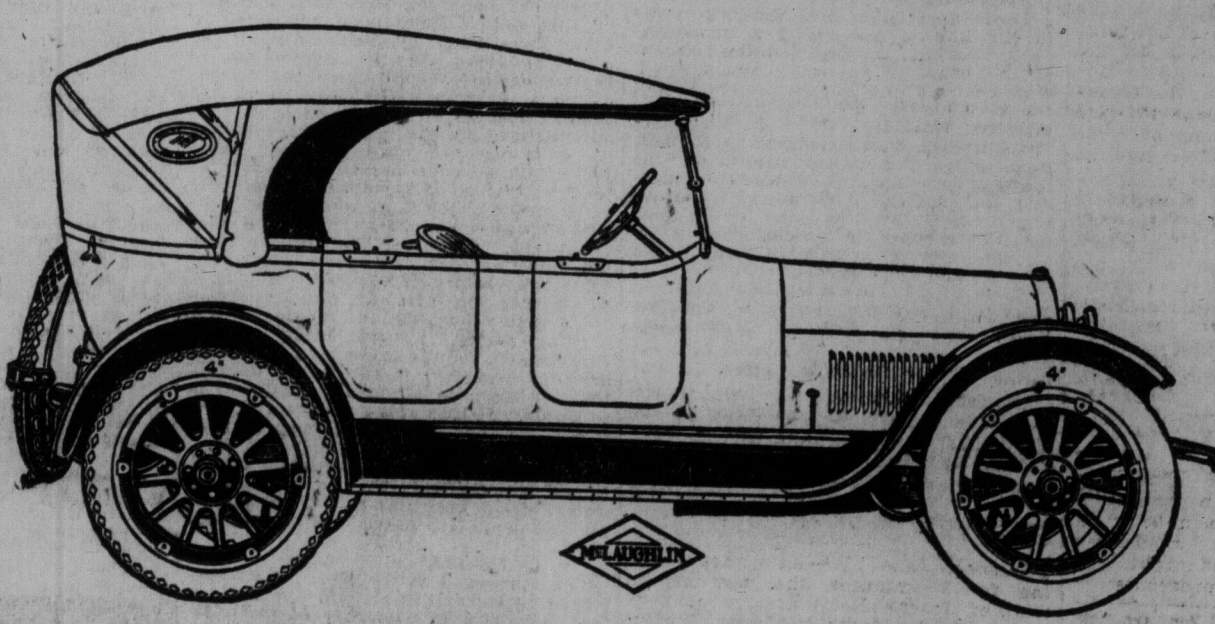

From every angle by which good motors are judged—efficiency, power, beauty, finish, appointments, the McLaughlin—"Canada's Standard Car" does not suffer by comparison.

"When better motor cars are built, McLaughlin will build them."

McLaughlin Motor Car Co. Limited

OSHAWA, ONT.

TORONTO SHOW ROOMS: Cor. Church and Richmond Sts.

McLaughlin 45 Extra Special