

RULES FOR THE INMATES.

(1.) All the inmates are to be subject to the control of the Matron, subject to the orders of the Committee.

(2.) Hour for Breakfast 8 o'clock.

" " Dinner, 1 o'clock.

" " Supper, 6 o'clock.

Evening prayers, 8 o'clock.

The elder girls are to go to their rooms at 8.30 o'clock, lights are to be put out at 10 o'clock, except in case of illness.

(3.) A daily routine to be carried on with regard to the sweeping, dusting and making of beds, each room to be well aired every day.

(4.) All inmates received at reduced rates shall, when able, assist in the work of the house.

(5.) Drunkenness, dishonesty, open contempt of religion, the use of bad language, or disobedience to the Matron and rules of the establishment, shall render the offender liable to expulsion.

(6.) All complaints are to be made to the ladies on duty.

(7.) Each inmate is to be responsible for her own articles and valuables, as to which the Home assumes no responsibility.

(8.) The inmates shall sit in the sitting-room or dining-room as ordered by the Matron.

(9.) The inmates shall attend public worship and Sabbath-school, unless excused by the Matron.

(10.) No spirituous liquors allowed on the premises, unless by order of the physician, and then only in such quantities as he shall prescribe, and in all cases to be administered only by the Nurse.

DUTIES OF THE MATRON.

(1.) The Matron shall see that all the rules of the establishment are carried out, and shall obey the orders of the Visiting Committee.

(2.) She shall each day keep an account in a book of all expenditures of money for the Home, also a faithful account of all the stores and property placed in her charge, note down in her book all events of importance, and all donations, and shall visit, and keep a careful register of all that are admitted to the Home, with the date of their admission and departure.

(3.) She shall conduct prayers for the inmates each morning and evening.