

FOUR POINTS

that may always be relied upon in "DORENWEND'S HAIR GOODS"

value: STYLE QUALITY SATISFACTION

We make no extravagant statements beyond fully guaranteeing all our goods at the very best to be obtained at whatever price you may desire.

QUALITY IS OUR MOTTO

DR. BLANCHARD DORENWEND CO. (LIMITED) 103-105 Yonge, Toronto

It was a piquant arrangement... and one that attracted the law of contrast, when there appeared on the Parisian stage not long ago the ugliest woman in Paris... Eltsam and Eltsam

NOTES OF SOCIETY

Mrs. Jack Drynan gave a small tea Saturday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Sanda (Lobour) and Miss Hess of Philadelphia.

Invitations are issued for the marriage of Florence Edna, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fletcher, to John Robert Page.

Mrs. Jack Ross of Montreal is with her mother, Mrs. W. D. Matthews. A small house dance was given on Friday evening by Mrs. Matthews for Mrs. Ross, the Misses Reid and some of the holiday visitors in town.

Mrs. Tom Wood will receive the first three Mondays of January and February.

Capt. and Mrs. Harold Blockford, with their little ones, arrived week today to spend a fortnight with Col. and Mrs. J. I. Davidson.

The Misses Reid, the pretty English visitors at Government House, are having no end of good times, many charming affairs being arranged in their honor.

Several jolly dinners were given last week at the Huron Club. The Mortimer Clark and their guests, the Misses Reid, being guests of honor at one bright party.

Mrs. Joseph R. Bull, 357 Weston-road, Toronto, will receive on the first Thursday of each month.

Mrs. Adam Nelson of the Rossin House entertained at a most enjoyable dinner party on Tuesday for her family and relatives and a few intimate friends.

Mrs. W. B. Hendry (nee McMichael) will receive for the first time since her marriage at her home, 197 Carlton-street, next Wednesday afternoon and evening, and afterwards on the second and fourth Mondays of the month.

Mrs. J. W. Beatty, 61 Crescent-road, will receive on Tuesday evenings instead of her former reception days.

Mr. and Mrs. Servy and the Misses Service of Pittsburgh, Pa., were guests last week at Happy Mount, Weston.

Mrs. John Greer, 595 Broadview-ave., will receive Monday and Tuesday and not again this season.

Miss Molly McVitty gave a shower last Tuesday afternoon in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Cecily Robertson.

The new National Club will be formally opened on Thursday evening next.

Miss Marguerite Hess of Philadelphia is a bright visitor in town, the guest of Mrs. Edmund Bristol.

Mr. Bert Mackenzie of Bridgeport is visiting his sister, Mrs. S. G. Glasco, 27 Crescent-road.

Mrs. James Douglas will not receive until February.

The engagement is announced of Marjorie Stewart Cochrane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Cochrane, to D. Ford Jones, son of the late D. Ford Jones of Gananoque.

Mrs. Reynolds of Winwood with her daughter, Mrs. Ellwood Moore.

The Young Bachelors are holding their fourth annual home at the Conkey next Wednesday evening at eight-thirty.

The patronesses are: Lady Pellatt, Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. J. A. Murray, Mrs. E. H. Dugan and Mrs. Cavithra Mulock, R. Kleiser, treasurer; Reginald Pellatt is the hon. secretary and next Wednesday will be the last of their social classes.

The Misses Steinberg have issued invitations to a fancy dress dance to be held at Simpson Hall, 734 Yonge-st., on Tuesday evening, Jan. 6, at seven.

These clever girls will hold their annual fancy dress ball at St. George's Hall next Wednesday from seven till eleven, for their social classes.

Mrs. Scott Wallie left at the beginning of the week for a southern trip.

Miss Nora Wallace is in Ottawa with Miss Eva Lessard.

Miss Grace Holmes of London is visiting Mrs. Murray McFarlane.

Mr. Harry Hellwell of Edmonton is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hellwell of Iverholme.

An open meeting will be given next Thursday morning at the Women's Musical Club, when the program will be given by the ladies' trio—Miss Lois Drecher Adamson, violin; Miss Lois Winlow, cello, and Mrs. Gerard Barton, piano.

His Grace Archbishop Sweatman and Mrs. Sweatman spent New Year's in Barrie.

Mrs. John A. Paterson and her daughter, Mrs. Saxon F. Shenstone, will receive at 11 Spadina Gardens on the first Fridays.

Miss Almee Falconbridge, who went abroad with Mrs. Plunker Magana, spent Christmas with Mrs. Jameson (Dora Rowand). Miss Falconbridge is expected home early this week.

Mrs. Henry Wright, 158 Crescent-rd., Rosedale, will receive on the second Monday of January and the first Mondays in February and March.

The E. C. Euchre Club will meet at the home of Miss Ham, 796 East Gerrard-street, on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. O. B. Shortly of Ottawa is in town, visiting her mother, Mrs. E. D. Howe of Charles-street.

The Toronto Euchre Club will hold their annual at home on Friday evening, Jan. 17, at McConkey's. As heretofore, a very pleasant evening is anticipated. Tickets may be had from the

On trial for over 50 years. Heartily commended by Nordica and other great artists. Possessed of a full, rich, melodious tone. Exquisite singing qualities. Built to last—resisting any and all climatic changes. Such is the

HEINTZMAN & CO. PIANO

The Piano of the home. The Piano of the concert hall. A real aristocrat. HEINTZMAN & CO. PIANO 115-117 King W., Toronto rear-commodore or any member of the house committee. Mrs. Etna D. Howe of Charles-street and her daughter, Mrs. William J. Fraser, of Howard-street, have sent out cards for an at home to be given next Friday in honor of Miss Dora Howe, one of the season's debutantes.

Mrs. H. M. Adling, 137 Isabella-street, will receive on Monday, Jan. 6, and on the first Monday in each month during the season.

The Red Feather Euchre Club were entertained New Year's Eve by Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Huron-street. Cards were played till 12 o'clock, when refreshments were served and prizes awarded. Mr. and Mrs. Will Guichrist claimed the firsts and to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston were presented the "consolation". A jolly little dance in the "tee maw" hours of the New Year was thronged by all. Mr. and Mrs. Langley, 909 West Bloor-street, will entertain the club Jan. 10.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Simon's Church at 4 p.m. on New Year's Day, when Miss J. daughter of W. H. Douglas, was united in marriage to Norman Crowe, son of the late W. N. Crowe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ernest Wood. Mr. Clissham played the "Wedding March". The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and looked smart and girlish in a tailored suit of blue, with Persian lamb trimmings, her hair was styled with soft touches of quill and feather. She carried a shower of white roses.

On New Year's Day the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lucas was the scene of a very merry wedding, when the marriage of Mr. C. Franklin Burroughs and Miss Florence J. Chubb, both of Mitchell, took place before a few intimate friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wesley Clarke of Toronto, formerly of Mitchell. Mrs. Neil A. McLean played the "Wedding March". The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and carried an abundance of Mr. Thomas Lucas, wore her traveling suit of blue broadcloth and carried a bouquet of white roses. Mrs. Lucas acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Will Foxwell and Miss Everson were assisting in the duties of the bride's parents, Napanee.

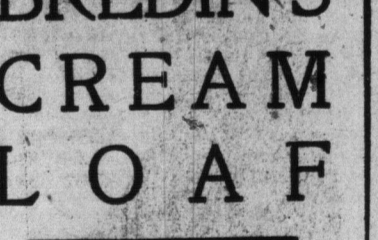

Mrs. Lulu Vandervoort was married to George A. McKay of Duluth, Minn., formerly of Toronto, on Tuesday, Dec. 31, at 8 o'clock on Tuesday night, where they will reside.

Mrs. R. J. Bruce will receive on Friday afternoon, Jan. 10, at her home, 146 Keele-street, Toronto Junction, and afterwards on the third Fridays, Mrs. Clowes of Lindsay will receive with Mrs. Bruce.

Enjoyable at Home. Mrs. Shoenberger gave a large and most enjoyable at home Friday afternoon, at her residence in College-street. The Misses Shoenberger received with their mother, Mrs. Geo. Biggar, was in the dining room. The spacious rooms were charmingly arranged with tea tables, the decorations being deep crimson roses and delicate greenery of ferns, a splendid tablecloth of linen and hand lace on the polished service being much admired in the library. Miss B. Sprague, Miss Ethel Baldwin, Miss Gladys Jones, the Misses Hagarty, Miss Arnold and Miss Everson were assisting in looking after everyone.

McLaurin-McEvoy Wedding. On New Year's Day the marriage of Miss Elizabeth McEvoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. McEvoy, Prince Arthur, was solemnized at the home of the bride, the rooms being embowered in pink and white flowers and ferns, a bell of these being suspended from an arch above the bride and groom. Rev. Dr. Wallace, pastor of Bloor-street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a lovely gown of hand-embroidered silk net over white satin, orange blossom wreath, with a cluster of roses and lilies. Miss Helen Gillies, a cousin, was bridesmaid, in white silk and lace, pink-plumbed hat, with lilies. The best man was Dr. Boswell. After a reception Mr. and Mrs. McLaurin left for Boston before going to their home in Amherst, Mass. The going-away dress was brown cloth, milk hat and coat.

Sheppard-Bentley Wedding. The marriage took place quietly New Year's Eve, at the residence of Dr. L. Bentley, Markham-street, of his daughter, Nina Liwella, to Mr. Leonard W. Sheppard, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheppard, Oxford-street. The Rev. Dr. Broughall performed the ceremony in the drawing room, which was lavishly decorated with palms, ferns and smilax. Miss Lola Hamilton presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the bridal party entered the room. The bride was given away by her father, who was lavishly decorated with palms, ferns and smilax. She wore a wedding veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley; she also wore an amethyst and diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid was in white lace over taffeta and

BREDIN'S CREAM LOAF

Bredin's Cream Loaf. Is the bread for everybody, because it is the best bread baked. And nobody can afford from a health standpoint to eat bread of a less quality standard than the best bread baked. The secret of its goodness is an open one. The finest flour, The purest cream, The sweetest butter, The best of malt extract, make the rich little nut brown loaf that Bredin's Cream Loaf is. At your grocer's. 5 cents.

KAY'S January Furniture Sale KAY'S

A Comprehensive Sale Embracing All Furniture in Stock --- Some Astonishing Price Reductions.

Our Furniture Sale differs from all others, both in the quality of the goods offered and its sweeping character. It applies to all furniture in stock, every article being reduced in price at least 15 per cent. Prices in this store are invariably marked in plain figures, so that comparison is easy. In many cases profit is now entirely wiped out, and we have cut deeply into first cost. Special bargains are indicated by colored tickets, showing both the original and the sale prices.

We append a list of bargains picked at random, others as good are numerous on the three floors devoted to furniture.

- Hall Chairs, No. 109—Belgian make, solid oak, richly carved, and finished in a pleasing brown shade. Extraordinary value at $10 7.50. Bed Room Suite—Three pieces, including Chest of Drawers, Dressing Table and Washstand, mahogany veneer, a quaint Colonial set, imported from a noted maker in the United States. Regular $25.00, for $20.00. Dresser, No. 85—Solid mahogany, with long mirror and 7 drawers. Regular $25.00, for $20.00. Sideboard, No. 200—A Sheraton design, fine mahogany, with inlaid lines, very convenient arrangement with cupboards, drawers, and cutlery trays. Regular $41. 40.00. Davenport Sofa—6 feet long, weathered oak with soft cushions, in tapestry. Regular $65.00, 40.00. Bed Table—24 x 32 with solid, solid oak, pale fumed color. Regular $12.00, for $8.00. Gilded Chair—Painty French piece, with gilded cane seats. Sale price for $12.00, 4.00. Writing Table—66 inches wide in weathered oak with birch top. Regular $14.00, for $12.00. Music Cabinet—Solid mahogany, width 22 1/2 inches, fitted with mirror back. Regular $35.00, for $25.00. Bed Room Suite—Solid mahogany, with long mirror and 7 drawers. Regular $25.00, for $20.00. Sideboard, No. 200—A Sheraton design, fine mahogany, with inlaid lines, very convenient arrangement with cupboards, drawers, and cutlery trays. Regular $41. 40.00.

Our Semi-Annual Sale of Remnant Rugs

Commences on Monday morning. As the name implies, these rugs are made from ends of carpets. Our very best weaves are included—Axminsters, Brussels, Wiltons, and Velvets. There is a large variety to choose from. You can suit almost any room, both as to size and color effect.

This will be a Sale to remember, for never in the history of the store have we offered values equal to those prepared for this occasion. Wise buyers will be here early. Here are six representative items:

- No. 1—A Brussels, in shades of green and brown, size 11 ft. x 10 ft. 6 in., 27 yards. Regular $25.00, for $18.00. No. 2—A beautiful Drawing-room Rug, a French Renaissance design on a background of rich green, size 11 ft. 6 in. x 12 ft. 6 in. Regular $32.00, for $25.00. No. 3—A handsome Persian design in Axminster, woven in rich dark shades, suitable for library or dining-room, size 14 ft. 3 in. x 12 ft. 7 in. Regular $77.00, for $47.50. No. 4—Axminster Rug, 13 ft. 6 in. x 11 ft. 6 in., 30 yards, in green and chintz. Regular $35.00, for $28.00. No. 5—A Green Wilton, super quality, size 13 ft. 3 in. x 12 ft., 27 yards. Regular $38.00, for $24.50. No. 6—A beautiful Wilton Rug, in two tones of green, size 11 ft. 7 in. x 14 ft. 6 in. Regular $60.00, for $30.00.

JOHN KAY COMPANY, LIMITED 36 and 38 King Street West

On Tuesday, Dec. 31, when Mrs. Lulu Vandervoort was married to George A. McKay of Duluth, Minn., formerly of Toronto, on Tuesday night, where they will reside.

Mrs. R. J. Bruce will receive on Friday afternoon, Jan. 10, at her home, 146 Keele-street, Toronto Junction, and afterwards on the third Fridays, Mrs. Clowes of Lindsay will receive with Mrs. Bruce.

Enjoyable at Home. Mrs. Shoenberger gave a large and most enjoyable at home Friday afternoon, at her residence in College-street. The Misses Shoenberger received with their mother, Mrs. Geo. Biggar, was in the dining room. The spacious rooms were charmingly arranged with tea tables, the decorations being deep crimson roses and delicate greenery of ferns, a splendid tablecloth of linen and hand lace on the polished service being much admired in the library. Miss B. Sprague, Miss Ethel Baldwin, Miss Gladys Jones, the Misses Hagarty, Miss Arnold and Miss Everson were assisting in looking after everyone.

McLaurin-McEvoy Wedding. On New Year's Day the marriage of Miss Elizabeth McEvoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. McEvoy, Prince Arthur, was solemnized at the home of the bride, the rooms being embowered in pink and white flowers and ferns, a bell of these being suspended from an arch above the bride and groom. Rev. Dr. Wallace, pastor of Bloor-street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a lovely gown of hand-embroidered silk net over white satin, orange blossom wreath, with a cluster of roses and lilies. Miss Helen Gillies, a cousin, was bridesmaid, in white silk and lace, pink-plumbed hat, with lilies. The best man was Dr. Boswell. After a reception Mr. and Mrs. McLaurin left for Boston before going to their home in Amherst, Mass. The going-away dress was brown cloth, milk hat and coat.

Sheppard-Bentley Wedding. The marriage took place quietly New Year's Eve, at the residence of Dr. L. Bentley, Markham-street, of his daughter, Nina Liwella, to Mr. Leonard W. Sheppard, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheppard, Oxford-street. The Rev. Dr. Broughall performed the ceremony in the drawing room, which was lavishly decorated with palms, ferns and smilax. Miss Lola Hamilton presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the bridal party entered the room. The bride was given away by her father, who was lavishly decorated with palms, ferns and smilax. She wore a wedding veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley; she also wore an amethyst and diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid was in white lace over taffeta and

DANCING A. KAPLAN

Instructor in Ball-Room, Fancy, Group and National Dances. For children, Saturday 2 to 5 o'clock, Broadway Hall, 450 Spadina Avenue. Studio open every evening 7 to 10 o'clock.

ROYAL HOTEL HAMILTON.

Largest, Best Appointed and Most Centrally Located. 7 FROM $2.50 PER DAY AND UP by the Toronto Festival Chorus, rehearsals for which will commence on Tuesday, Jan. 7, at 8 o'clock in the music hall of the Toronto College of Music. Members of the chorus are requested to bring their copies of this work with them—Novello's edition. New members will be received up to Jan. 21. Application should be made to Dr. Torrington at the college of music.

AMUSEMENTS. A SERIES OF RECITALS THE MARGARET EATON SCHOOL OF LITERATURE AND EX-PRESSION.

ANNOUNCEMENTS A Series of Ten Saturday Evening Recitals in Greek Theatre. ARTISTS APPEARING ANNOUNCED LATER

Single Admission 60c and 75c. Course Tickets, $4.00 and $6.00. PLAN NOW OPEN TO SUBSCRIBERS AT GEORGE HEINTZMAN'S PIANO SALON, 97 YONGE ST., and at MARGARET EATON SCHOOL. Plans close Jan. 31, 1908. Recitals begin Feb. 8, 1908.

ST. GEORGE'S, LAMBTON SEES PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Mabel Clayton United in Marriage to John A. McKinnon.

A very pretty wedding took place in St. George's Church, Lambton, on Tuesday last, at 2 p.m., when the marriage was solemnized by Miss Mabel Clayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clayton, and Mr. John A. McKinnon. The church was beautifully decorated with Christmas green and holly, and a magnificent marriage bell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. O. Tremayne, former rector of St. George's. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Irene, while the groom was supported by Mr. N. R. Winter of Toronto Junction. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of embroidered Brussels net lace is expressed by many at this time of the year. For one to live the many, many happy years wished by one's friends, it is absolutely necessary to take Cook's Turkish and Russian Baths; good health is then assured. Tell your friends what you intend to do, and if they have not already started, advise them to start at once; you will then meet them year after year to extend the season's greetings. Open day and night, with excellent sleeping accommodation and rooms. A dainty bill of fare served at all hours. 202 and 204 KING STREET WEST.

THE SAME TO YOU

UPSETS AG INTO NAT

Chicago Prof of Metals

CHICAGO, changing of another is now claim in Herbert McC

Chicago at American as vancement of dream of the ments which science of the

his own labr radio-active held respons

The chemi then were w to disintegr

cal process known, acco The discov

portant link radio-active the best ex elements may immutabl primitive son Prof. McCoy of different his own labr radio-active held respons

The chemi then were w to disintegr cal process known, acco The discov portant link radio-active the best ex elements. Th

ly to prove a problem of it cleared, h

CONVI Escapes From LITTLE B

ees of citizen in the vicin County, in a

Standridge, yesterday wounded and

Standridge sentenced for his wife The woman home of a lowned her killed by Standridge a to have been

JAPA But Won't Subjects

SAN FRA Aoki, the man to his way to last night.

He said a respects the jets, but w active action of the U. S. America or sions.

PORT-D working on all day

these "tugs" o'clock this in the bar

out and the canal she to Port Coed by the C

Estab. D. H. 77

Style and lower city. Alas Jackets, Pe

Jackets Astrachan every style and Ties in Lynx, all c

Minchuria Mink Mar Furs. Men's Fur

coon and o est Prices RAW FU price list.