

MONTREALER HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Arrested in England For Trading
With the Enemy—Represented
Philadelphia Concern

Liverpool, March 24.—George Arthur Gatehouse, a Canadian who formerly resided in Montreal, was taken into custody at Liverpool, just as he was about to sail for America. The police took him before a magistrate who remanded him for one week on the charge of "trading with the enemy." Details of the charge against Mr. Gatehouse have not been revealed, but the magistrate considered them serious enough to justify him in refusing bail. Mr. Gatehouse has been abroad representing a Philadelphia concern. He admitted that he had been in Holland since his arrival in Europe last December, but he declared he was innocent of any intention of trading with the countries hostile to Great Britain.

Philadelphia, March 24.—George A. Gatehouse, of Philadelphia, who has been detained in Liverpool on suspicion of having traded with Great Britain's enemy, represents the N. P. Sloan Company, cotton merchants of this city. Norman P. Sloan, a member of the company, said that Gatehouse left here several months ago to establish a connection in Liverpool to take care of the selling of cotton for the Philadelphia firm. The company has customers among the mills in Holland. Mr. Sloan said, and after Gatehouse arrived in England some of the mills had written the concern asking that its representative visit them in Holland. Mr. Sloan said he supposed Gatehouse carried out the request.

The Philadelphia company has no customers in Germany, Mr. Sloan said, and has not sold cotton to any of the enemies of Great Britain. He was greatly surprised to learn of Gatehouse's arrest.

Gatehouse's wife was waiting for a cable message that he had sailed for home when she was informed of his arrest. Gatehouse has been employed by the company for many years in the Montreal office of the concern. He and his wife left Montreal last April, spent the summer at Utica, N.Y., and took up their residence in Philadelphia in September.

SIX WEEKS ABOARD A GERMAN RAIDER AS WAR PRISONER

One of Sunken Potaro's Crew
Tells of Adventures—A Game of Bluff

London, March 23.—The Daily Chronicle tells the story of six weeks' adventure as a prisoner of war aboard the German raider Kronprinz Wilhelm, as related by a member of the crew, J. H. Allan, of the steamship Potaro, arrived at Liverpool on the sailing ship Desado.

The Potaro left Liverpool on Christmas Day for Montevideo, and on January 8th the crew sighted a four-funnelled cruiser, which they believed to be British. She came to the ship and fired two shots across her bow, and the ship then discovered it was the Kronprinz. Time was given to them in which to get their effects together, and then all of the crew were taken aboard the raider and the Potaro sailed away with a prize crew on board. On January 14 the Nelson liner Highland Brae was similarly treated. The crew and passengers, including a number of women and children and a prize crew, were put aboard. Later the same day the three masted schooner Wilfred M. was pulled up and the crew were transferred. The Kronprinz rammed her twice, but she was not sunk and the Germans left her with her after part still afloat. A few days after this the collier Holgar, of Bremen, came alongside and transferred to the Kronprinz the crew of the Hemphers, which was attacked on December 28th.

A week later the four-masted Norwegian bark Schmand, laden with 8,400 tons of wheat from Queenstown was encountered. The crew were transferred and the Kronprinz fired 16 rounds into her wooden hull at a distance of between 300 and 400 yards, Allan said.

"They could not sink the ship by gunfire, and they had in the end to send a number of men on board to scuttle her. My opinion is that the Germans were playing a game of bluff with their ships. They could not sink anything at point-blank range."

After being six weeks on board the Kronprinz the crew of the Potaro were transferred to the Holgar and taken to Buenos Ayres. Altogether the Kronprinz has on board prisoners and passengers from five ships, numbering 222, Allan continued.

"They gave us good food. The captain seemed to be a considerate man. I know they would have come off best had there been a fight. Whenever a ship came out we were sent below. We did not know what was happening nor could we tell what perils we were facing. We might have been suffocated there or blown up while the German crew were being taken prisoners by the English, who would never suppose us to be on this ship."

"There were sentries over us night and day, while the Germans were continually searching our kits for dum-din bullets.

"Five members of the German crew were executed for disobeying orders, but the most remarkable incident of all was when we were captured and transferred. Among the crew which went to take possession of our ship was a man whose face I remembered well. I had sailed alongside with the British flag to all parts of the world, and here he was, after war was declared, sailing under the enemy, taking British steamers prisoners. That, in my opinion is how the Germans get their information."

WONDERFUL SHOWING OF SASKATOON POST OFFICE
Saskatoon, Sask., March 24.—For the fiscal year ending March 31, 1914, the business done by the Saskatoon post office amounted to $135,588. This makes Saskatoon the fifteenth largest office in the entire dominion, the seventh largest of the Great Lakes, and the second largest in Saskatchewan, which is probably due to the fact that Regina, being the seat of the provincial government, naturally benefits by a very heavy government business.

Set up until 1920, Saskatoon's entire post office business was conducted within a small one-window shack on the main street. Today, however, the present large brick building is quite inadequate to the requirements which have been given for every dollar than under the old style of loose management under the aldermanic system.

MILL IS SOLD
At Chubb's corner at noon today the business of the Upper Gagetown was sold at auction under foreclosure proceedings on behalf of L. G. Crosby, the mortgage. If their plans are successful it will mean the establishment of an important industry in Upper Gagetown.

WAR NOTES

Athens papers say that Greece will not join the allies unless Roumania does. A British force on last Saturday defeated a German force in German south-west Africa. Twenty Germans were killed, 21 wounded, 210 captured and much war material taken.

Prince Eitel Friedrich, second son of the Kaiser, who is in command of a brigade on the western front, has been decorated with the order of Pour Le Merite.

Two Japanese artillery officers left Tokyo today to join the Russian armies as observers.

The allies are reported to have landed troops at the Dardanelles.

THE BAPTIST MINISTERS

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. M. Addison of Pettitopolis, has introduced the duplex envelope on his field with good results.

We understand that the Lower Stewacke field is hoping to induce A. Swetnam (Lic.) to return to them for the summer. He has been in attendance at Newton during the winter.

Rev. C. P. Wilson, superintendent evangelist, spent a few hours in St. John on Saturday. He is assisting Rev. D. Price in special services at Middle Seckville.

Rev. W. F. Parker, the president of convention, recently gladdened the office and the editor by a call.

Rev. O. P. Brass, of Georgetown, read an able paper at the Annapolis Quarterly on "The Object of Church Discipline." The Quarterly is considering the whole question of church discipline by the presentation of papers at its meetings. Later these papers are to be printed for distribution among the churches.

We entered a call the other day from Rev. R. Heine, who is rendering such valuable service to the Lord in connection with the Bible Society. He had just returned from Halifax, having been accompanied on the journey by Mrs. Heine. He finds the work at Halifax and St. John greatly reduced this year, owing to the war.

We have learned with deep regret that Pastor J. Clark has been laid aside from work for some weeks and has been suffering severely.

The sympathy of the Maritime Baptist and its readers is extended to Rev. A. A. Rideout, of Dorchester, Mass. A loved mother has been removed from the earthly home to the heavenly mansion. She died at the home of her son in Dorchester, Mass., and was buried at Hartland, N.B. The other son, Lieut. Charles M., is with the garrison at Halifax.

The many friends of Rev. W. B. Wallace will be glad to hear of his continued success as pastor of the First Baptist church of Rochester, N. Y.

Rev. M. E. Fletcher, field secretary for denominational fields, has returned from Nova Scotia. He attended quarterly meetings at Paradise, Windsor, Truro and Florence. He reports good meetings and a growing interest in all branches of the denominational work.

We were pleased to renew acquaintance last week with J. Walter Jones, B. A. (Acadia '04). After being prominently connected with the teaching profession on the "Island" for some years, he is now manager of a large farm near Charlottetown.

A BOLD DAYLIGHT ROBBERY IN MONTREAL

Montreal, March 24.—James O'Brien, a messenger for the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, was held up and robbed of $800 by two men on Beaver Hall Hill in the business district this morning. The robbers escaped.

ONTARIO MURDER CASE

Brockville, Ont., March 24.—Grant Kilborn living near here, was arrested for a criminal offence, having shot an elderly woman named Mrs. White, who with her husband occupied a portion of the house where Kilborn resided.

As White and his wife were going out this morning Kilborn is said to have fired the contents of the barrel of a shotgun into her abdomen. Kilborn has been separated from his wife for some time and is known to have been drinking heavily. Mrs. White was removed to a hospital and died soon after. Kilborn is held on a charge of murder.

One Does Not Need To Squint

Some people who wear glasses find that strong, white light makes them squint. If instead of wearing plain, white lenses, they wore our new tinted lenses, they would experience relief—get rid of the squint.

People who don't wear glasses, but squint, need properly fitted glasses. The squint is an effort to accommodate the eyes to see well. The right glasses would stop the squint and improve the sight.

Whatever is good for the eyes is to be had at Sharpe's. See Sharpe's optometrists and you'll see better.
