RECENT WEDDINGS

Miss Catherine Cunningham was united in marriage last evening in St. Paul's church to Allan A. Daley. Rev. Archdeacon Crowfoot performed the ceremony. Miss Bertha Stockton attended the bride, while J. A. Gaulton supported the groom.

A quiet wedding of wide social interest took place yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock when, in St. Andrew's church, Rev. F. S. Dowling united in marriage Geoffrey M. Wheelock, of Shanghai, China, and Miss Lois Hazen Grimmer, daughter of Mr. Justice and Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer of this city. The bride, who was unattended, wore a smart brown travelling costume and carried a great bouquet of violets. She was given away by her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock left in the evening train for Boston. They will make an extended wedding tour in the United States, returning here in April and sailing in May for Shanghai where Mr. Wheelock has extensive business interests. The bride has been a great social favorite in St. John and during the war was most active in patriotic work. A host of friends will wish for her and her husband long life and much happiness.

RECENT DEATHS

On Monday, William C. Renne, income tax assessor and former shoe manufacturer, died at Pittsfield (Mass.), aged sixty-four years. He organized the St. Croix Shoe Company in Calais, Maine, where he resided for eighteen years. He is survived by his wife, three sons, and one daughter, Mrs. Rufus A. Soule, of New Brunswick.

Frederick, N. B., Feb. 24.—The death occurred at Keswick Ridge, on Monday night, of J. Harrigan, after a short illness, at the age of sixty-six years. He is survived by a wife and three sons, John and William of Keswick Ridge, and Arthur, of Humboldt (Sask.), also one sister, Hannah, of Boston.

Many will hear with regret of the death of Mrs. Hugh Daly, which occurred at the Mater Misericordiae home in Sydney street yesterday. Mrs. Daly, with her husband, had lived the greater part of her life in the new Loch Lomond road and was a well known and highly regarded member of that community. About one month ago her sons Richard and William, of New York, visited their parents in St. John and placed them in the home. Mrs. Daly, who was in the eighty-third year of her age, is survived by her husband and five sons, Michael of Bathurst, Hugh, Richard and William of New York, and Daniel of Silver Falls.

Mrs. Susan Henderson, widow of George Henderson, died on Thursday at Rosindale, Boston. Mrs. Henderson was formerly Miss Susan Kelley of St. John. The funeral was held from the residence of her daughter in Rosindale, Mrs. Thomas E. Johnson, on Sunday.

The death is announced in Boston of James McNaughton, aged sixty-eight years, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Edward King and her daughter, Dorothy, died recently of pneumonia within two days of each other at Odellville, Quebec. Mrs. King was formerly Miss Laura Martha Higgs, of Woodstock. She was fifty-three years of age. Her daughter was twenty-six.

Miss May McAfee, daughter of Mr. Harry McAfee, Newton, died at her home yesterday after a brief illness.

Mrs. Delbert Phillips of Russiagorish died at the Victoria Hospital in Fredericton yesterday afternoon after under-

CLOSE 150-YEAR-OLD HOTEL

Famous Inn at Somers, Opened by First Elephant Owner in U. S.

White Plains, N. Y., Feb. 25.—The famous old Elephant Hotel at Somers, in the northern part of Westchester county, which was erected more than 150 years ago, has been closed. After prohibition ended its life as a country inn it was transformed into a tea room, but this venture did not pay.

The hotel was opened by Hecckel Bailey, who is said to have brought the first elephant to this country and exhibited it in a circus. Opposite the hotel stands the monument erected to the memory of Mr. Bailey's elephant.

going three operations for appendicitis. She was twenty-three years of age.

Andrew H. Rudolf died at his home in Lunenburg, N. S., Feb. 21. He leaves his wife, formerly Miss Anna McKel, daughter of the late Rev. W. LeBaron McKel of this city.

Word was received in Parrsboro yesterday of the accidental death of James Stoten, one of the mechanics of the Handley-Page biplane Atlantic, which is presumed to have taken place in Egypt when he attempted to pull wheel out of the mud. The propeller of the machine was in rapid motion, and as the unfortunate man stooped down it struck him, severing his head. He was twenty-seven years of age and leaves several relatives in London, England.

The death of George F. Smye, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smye, Alma, took place at the home of his uncle, J. W. Thompson. He was twenty-eight years of age, and death was due to tuberculosis of the lungs. He leaves his parents, a wife and two sisters, including Mrs. C. C. Carson of St. John.

CUPID IN HOME FOR AGED.

Perth Amboy, N. J., Feb. 25.—Following a courtship of two months in the home for the aged, Mrs. Elizabeth Kolber and Christian Peterson, each 72 years old, were married in the institution by the Rev. W. Northern Jones, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church. The bride received many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson lived in Perth Amboy for more than fifty years, but did not meet until two months ago. They were engaged two weeks. The bride was a widow for fifteen years. The husband was a widower.
