The peace-time programme outlined neluded: First-The continuation of Red Cross aid to soldiers in hospitals under the care of the D.S.C.R., as now carried on by the New Brunswick Provincial Red Cross Hospital Committee.
Second—Establishment of cottage hospitals in such districts as may be in-dicated by the department of health. Third—Provide funds for an educational campaign during summer months through isolated parts of province. Fourth—Provide funds continuing organization of provincial Red Cross, and for holding in warehouses ready for disaster or epidemics, supplies now available (those left from war supplies are already stored by health department, St. John), and to supplement such supplies as advisable.

The various committees, working in the interests of F. A. Campbell, Labor candidate for commissionership, met last evening in Oddfellows' hall, Union street. Fred Scurrah was the chairman, and plans were perfected for the coming election.

Erpest Rudd of Montreal, a gunner in the artillery at Halifax, was found dead yesterday in a wash room at the barracks there with his throat cut.

At the regular meeting of the Comnercial Club held last evening the secre-mercial Club held last evening the secretary referred to the plan for a new hotel in the city and said that on his return from Montreal in a few days he would have some definite information. W. H. Golding was appointed chairman of the publicity committee in the place of R. H. Bruce, who has resigned. Transportation betwen St. John and Digby while the steamship Empress is being repaired, was taken up and it was said that an endeavor was being made to secure the steamship Northumberland to run while the Empress is laid up. In the absence of the president, S. E. Elkin, the vice-president, C. H. Peters, presided. A pamphlet with facts about St. John was suggested to advertise the city. The matter of the repair of river wharves was brought up by R. D. Paterson and it was said that the government had
