VALUABLE ADVICE.
A lady journalist who conducted a page devoted to feminine interests was ill, and a male member of the editorial staff did duty as her deputy.

He soon distinguished himself. A correspondent asked how grease might best be removed from soap. He read it hurriedly, noticing only that it was an inquiry for the removal of grease. This was his answer:

"Soak a soft cloth in petrol and rub gently till the grease is eradicated."

CLERKS put Marshall Field, Wanamaker, Swift, Armour—among the "owners of America." Why? Because they are the right clerks. And what made Field, Wanamaker, Swift, Armour—Capitalists instead of continuing Clerks? The fact that they selected the right Business and House to train in. You can do the same. THE YEARS ROLL BY
The years roll by. Time swiftly wings its flight.
We're growing old.
The wintry blast has touched us with its blight.
Our eyes are dimmed, our ears refuse to hear.
Our faltering steps proclaim the end is near.

It was not thus when treason raised its head.
Then we were young;
When storm and men paled and all was doubt and dread,
Then we were young.
At our country's call we fought for liberty,
A land we saved, the people we set free.
We murmur not at our advancing age.
They will be done;
We've played our part, we're passing off the stage.
They will be done;
Wrought for God, for country and for right,
We've borne our cross, O, may our crown be bright!

Close our eyes our work is done;
What to us is friend or foe-man?
Rise of moon or set of sun,
Hand of man or kiss of woman?
Lay us low, lay us low,
In the clover or the snow;
What care we, we cannot know;
Lay us low!

As men we have fought our fight,
Proved our truth by our endeavor;
Let us sleep in solemn night,
Sleep forever and forever.
Lay us low, etc.

Fold us in our country's flag,
Roll the drum and fire the volley;
What to us are all the wars,
What but death denocking folly?
Lay us low, etc.

Leave us to God's watching eye,
Trust us to the hand that made us.
Mortal love weeps idly by;
God alone has power to aid us.
Lay us low, etc.

Thoughts of a veteran.
