IS AT OLD HOME AFTER 25 YEARS

Len Bonnell Comes From Saskatchewan as Mother is Ill.

Conducts Large Ranch North of
Winnipeg—Talks of Hudson
Bay Plan

Len Bonnell, eldest son of Mrs. A. L. Bonnell, Ketepec, who hastened home from Tisdale, Sask., on account of his mother's illness in the General Public Hospital with pneumonia, had been absent from his homeland for 25 years, though he is yet on the sunny side of 50 by a wide margin. The unexpectedness of the visit and the thrill imparted in finding his mother practically out of danger, makes Mr. Bonnell's reunion with his people and friends all the happier.

HAS RANCH IN NORTH.

The former Ketepec boy is grain farming, lumbering and engaged in agricultural work of various kinds on his large ranch 800 miles north of Winnipeg. His property, which yields handsomely every year, is outside the growing town of Tisdale in which Mr. Bonnell takes residence in the winter time. A married couple are caretakers of the farmstead in the suburbs and when the season is on Mr. Bonnell has a considerable number of farmhands. Though a born easterner and still sentimentally attached to New Brunswick, Len Bonnell is a booster for the Hudson Bay Railway and shipping outlet.

AT HUDSON'S BAY.

Mr. Bonnell has visited the Hudson's Bay shipping centres, Port Churchill and Port Nelson, so often mentioned in connection with the project, and is frank to admit he cannot see how Port Nelson would be able to become a safe and sure port because of the long periods of ice. Even Port Churchill was somewhat rimmed with ice for a large portion of the year, but the bay remained open, and in Mr. Bonnell's opinion the harbor there could be used continuously for all practical purposes of incoming and outgoing shipping. Mr. Bonnell chats very interestingly of Canadian life in this unfamiliar region.

He will remain amongst his people here until his mother is quite well again, and is going about visiting old friends and acquaintances with a great deal of joy. He is brother of Reginald Bonnell, commercial traveler; Allison Bonnell, manager of the Originals Dumbbell Company, who hastened from Port William to his mother's bedside; Carl Bonnell, at home, and Mrs. W. H. Stubbs, of First street, who arrived home today from Florida because of her mother's illness. Mrs. Stubbs went South a few weeks ago with her aunt, Mrs. A. L. Peatman, who is attending to some business matters in connection with the estate of a sister who died here a few months ago while on a visit.

H. E. SIBSON HEADS
PEERLESS LODGE

Installation of Officers of Odd
Fellows Conducted by M. D.
Brown

Reports submitted at the annual meeting of Peerless Lodge, No. 19, L. O. O. F., held last night in their hall, Simonds street, showed the lodge to be flourishing. The new officers were installed by M. D. Brown, deputy grand master, and plans for the activities of the coming year were discussed. There was a good attendance of members of the lodge and visiting members of the order.

The officers installed were: H. E. Sibson, N. G.; W. J. Seely, V. G.; M. D. Morrell, R. Sec. G. A. Chase, F. Sec. F. M. Smiler, Treas.; G. Blizard, warden; A. J. Fitzgerald, conductor; C. Jones, R. S.; R. Dickey, L. S. S.; U. G. Staples, chaplain; A. Washburn, R. C. N. G.; E. H. Marshall, L. S. N. G.; W. Chipman, R. S. V. G.; W. A. Sprague, L. S. V. G.; A. B. Thorne, L. G.; W. Garnett, O. G.; W. A. Segee, J. P. G.

FORMER COURSE OF
COUNCIL RECALLED

Action in Policeman O'Leary
Case Precedent For Yesterday's Vote

In connection with the action of the Common Council yesterday in placing the name of Mrs. McCavour, widow of Police Officer S. P. McCavour, on the civic pay roll, it will be recalled that this is the second time the council has taken such action. On July 18, 1913, Special Officer Frank E. O'Leary was killed while on duty and the council on July 16, three days later, ordered the name of his mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Leary, placed on the pay roll. She was to receive the rate of pay of the police officers. In June of 1916 the council decided that she was to receive the rate of pay in force at the time her son was killed.

This order was in force until January 28, 1919, at which time Mrs. O'Leary was paid $2,000 and gave a release of any further claim on the city.

DE MONTS MEETING

The monthly meeting of De Monts Chapter, L. O. E. D. E. was held this morning with Mrs. Leonard Tilley, regent, in the chair. The sum of $10 was voted toward the installation of a radio set for the benefit of the patients at the Lancaster Military Hospital. The meeting considered nominations for officers. Resolutions of sympathy were forwarded to Mrs. Fred B. Schofield and Miss Celia Armstrong in their recent bereavement.

TO PRESENT PLAY.

A cast of clever amateurs is now rehearsing the comedy drama, "Nothing But the Truth." It is to be presented in St. Vincent's auditorium on Feb. 1 and 2 under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I.

IS SERIOUSLY ILL

The condition of Mrs. R. S. Crisp, who is seriously ill at her home, 821 Douglas avenue, was unchanged this morning. Mrs. Crisp's many friends will hope for an early improvement in her health.

FOLLOWED RIGHT COURSE

In the Police Court record of yesterday it was stated that the three men given in charge by Moses McNulty for charges of assaulting him at the home at Bay Shore, which is in the county, had been brought to the city police station in error. In justice to Sergeant O'Neil, the court should be stated that the course he pursued was the only one open to him. In case of an arrest made by a city policeman the city jail is the proper place to take the one arrested.

VENDOR CASE DISMISSED.

As announced in a later edition of the Times-Star yesterday the case against Harry Cohen, a licensed liquor vendor, charged with illegal selling of liquor, was dismissed yesterday afternoon when the complainant in the case failed to appear. The information was laid by Gustavus Duncan. Mr. Cohen was represented by C. J. Inches, K. C.

HARD ON MOTORS

The soft spell has caused havoc with motor traffic roundabout the city. The slushy condition of the roads renders even some of the more powerful cars practically helpless on steep hills and in consequence there were many over-heated engines and damaged wheel-chains. Sidewalk traffic was treacherous in the early morning but civic employees mended the worst places and are continuing in this work.

COASTING ACCIDENT

Walter Boudreau, a Clarence street small boy who ran into an automobile at the intersection of Union street and Wentworth street hill a few days ago while coasting, seems to have escaped any serious injury to his head. The boy was rendered unconscious by the impact and taken to the General Public Hospital. In the automobile into which he bumped. He has been receiving out-patient treatment since and there happily appears to be no permanent injury.

ORANGE GATHERING AT EAST SAINT JOHN

Program Given by Courtenay
Bay Lodge and Fairmount
L. O. B. A.

An excellent musical and literary program was given in the United Church hall in East Saint John last night under the joint auspices of Fairmount L. O. B. A. and Courtenay Bay L. O. B. and was much enjoyed by a large audience. R. G. Magee was chairman and the numbers on the program were as follows: Vocal solo, W. McEachern; selection by an orchestra composed of Miss Marjorie Smith, pianist; Jacobson, violinist; E. Bridgen, drums, and J. F. Munro, banjo; reading, George Gordon; duet, J. McEachern and W. McEachern; selection of mouth organ and band, by the Little River orchestra, Messrs. Green and Lewis, and reading, Mrs. J. F. Munro.

An address on Protestantism by Rev. A. L. Tedford was heard with much interest and appreciation, and hearty thanks was extended to Mr. Tedford. After the program refreshments were served and there was social enjoyment. Miss Violet Woods was pianist for the evening.

DEATH WAS SUDDEN

George Ernest Bissett, Formerly of West End, Was War
Veteran

Friends in Saint John were shocked to hear of the sudden death of George Ernest Bissett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Bissett, 184 Duke street, West Saint John, who died yesterday morning at Groton, Mass. No particulars of Mr. Bissett's sudden passing were given in the telegram received by his father. Mr. Bissett, who formerly resided here, is survived by his wife, who was Miss Hattie Wright, of Saint John, and a little son two and a half months old, also his parents, three sisters and a brother. The sisters are Miss Vivian, of the M. R. A. Ltd. staff, the Misses Meta and Margaret, and the brother is Daryl Bissett, at home. Mr. Bissett was a veteran of the Great War, and a member of Carleton Union Lodge, No. 8, A. F. and A. M.

His father left last evening for Groton. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sorrow.

CUT ORDINARY ONE

Donald Fraser, in City Today,
Speaks of Lumber Operations of Season

"Prospects in the lumbering industry in the province are that the cut this year will be only an ordinary one as the saw mill business is not very good at the present time" was said this morning by Donald Fraser, president of Fraser Ltd., when interviewed regarding the lumber situation. The cut thus far, he said, was about normal for this season and conditions in the woods at present were favorable for operations.

Mr. Fraser said that his trip here was an ordinary business one. He is at the Royal Hotel.

JACKSON GOES TO PEN; 2 YEARS

Given Concurrent Sentences
by Judge Barry on Theft
Charges.

Geo. Fawcett Hearing Taken up
—Collars Decide For Speedy
Trials

William John Westley Jackson of Ontario, who was found guilty of theft, in the County Court yesterday, was sentenced by Judge J. A. Barry this morning to serve two years in Dorchester penitentiary on the charge of stealing a trunk and two years on a charge of stealing a suit of clothes, the terms to run concurrently.

TAXI MAN'S CASE

The evidence and argument of counsel in the case of George Fawcett, a taxi-driver, charged with procuring girls for illicit purposes, were heard by Judge Barry and judgment reserved until next Tuesday. The crown added another count to the indictment this morning which brings in the element of gain to the accused from the alleged act. The defence argued that there was no procuring within the legal meaning of the word and that there was no evidence that Fawcett had actually arranged the party. J. Starr Tait appeared for the crown and C. J. Melliday for the accused.

CHOOSE SPEEDY TRIALS

Mr. and Mrs. William I. Collier, sent up for trial recently on a charge of stealing $2,100 from a house in Pond street, appeared before Judge Barry this morning, and elected to be tried under the Speedy Trials Act. The matter will be heard later.

NICE OUTFIT GOES WITH PRIZE TRUNK

D. J. Corr Wins at Y. M. C. I.
Drawing—Cards Enjoyed at
45 Tables

D. J. Corr, secretary of the world skating championship meet to be held on Lily Lake this month, is the winner of a fine wardrobe trunk and well chosen contents in a drawing held by the Y. M. C. I., the results of which were awaited with much interest. His ticket was No. 8,164. The winner was decided on last night at the weekly card party of the Y. M. C. I. The drawing was conducted by M. E. Agar, M. L. A.-elect, and Walter H. Golding.

WHAT IT CONTAINS

The following excellent outfit went with the trunk—Cloth for one suit, cloth for one overcoat, cloth for one spring and fall shirt, six collars, six soft collars, six ties, 12 linen handkerchiefs, one silk handkerchief three suits underwear, two suits pajamas, one pair boots, one pair oxford, six pair silk hose, six pair cashmere hose, one hat, one umbrella, one pair kid gloves, two pair garters, one pair suspenders, one belt, one card collar buttons, one pair slippers.

It was a coincidence that the lady selected from the large card party last evening by the judges to assist in the drawing should be the mother of George Cusack, who himself was the winner of the sedan car disposed of in the drawing of the Protestant Orphans' Home some weeks ago. Mrs. Cusack, S. volunteered when the request was made for a third party to assist, and drew the lucky ticket from among the thousands.

WINNERS AT 45c.

At the card party the game of 45s was played at 45 tables and a very pleasant evening was spent. Mrs. James Flood was the general convener and had able assistance in looking after the tables and serving refreshments. The winners were: Ladies, first, Miss Annie Fitzgerald, card table; second, Miss Annie Travis, electric table lamp; consolation, Miss Edith Fitzgerald, spoon dish; gentlemen, first, Michael Burke, second, Darcy Coffee, silk scarf; consolation, P. L. Jennings, tobacco pouch. The door prize, a pair of chickens, was won by Miss Lily Dupuis.

CLAN MACKENZIE PLANS BURNS NIGHT

Fred Cameron is New Chief—
Installation Conducted by
Dr. Corbet

There was a good attendance at the annual meeting of Clan Mackenzie, held last evening in Orange Hall, German street, and reports submitted were most encouraging. Plans for the proper observance of Burns night were discussed, and it was decided to engage the Venetian Gardens for this event, on January 27.

Officers were installed by the royal deputy, Dr. G. G. Corbet, as follows: Fred Cameron, chief; Ernest Kenney, treasurer; John Reoch, chaplain; J. A. Murdoch, financial secretary; William Cameron, treasurer; P. T. Dunlop, M. D., physician; D. J. Stratton, senior herald; G. G. Corbet, junior herald; F. Z. Fowler, sennet; H. W. Belding, warden; J. T. McGowan, sentinel; E. B. MacDonald, piper; Alexander Cruikshank, standard bearer; G. G. Corbet, trustee for 3 years; E. B. MacDonald, trustee for 1 year.

MAY BE APPEALED.

An appeal in the case of Long vs. the Estate of William McLaughlin, in which an award of $8,000 was made to the plaintiff and $593.75 to his father, is likely to be taken it was said yesterday. W. R. Scott appeared for the plaintiff and W. J. Mahoney and G. H. V. Belyea, K. C., for the defence.

MET LAST EVENING

Routine business was dealt with at a meeting of the Daughters of Israel held last night in the Hebrew school rooms in Carleton street. In the absence of the president, the chair was taken by Miss Annie Gilbert.
