The election contest in Newfoundland in being conducted with much bitternes .Unfortunately there are religious element in the struggle. The Grand Orange Lodg has issued a manifesto in fayour of the Gov ernment. The Roman Catholics, as may Red after be expected, are largely in favour of the opposition. The Wesleyans are said to be almost unifelly on the Government side. Hon. C. F. Bennett, the agod leader of the Opposition, arrived in the last steamer from England, and was warmly received by his friends. His carriage was drawn from the wharf to his residence by citizens.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1875--EIGHTHIYEAR.

THE ALDINE, THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA,

ISSUED MONTHLY.

"A MAGNIFICENT CONCEPTION, WONDER-FULLY CARRIED OUT."

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our grea artists, has always been recognized, and man attempts have been made to meet the war The successive failures which so invariably followed each attempt in this country to estab-lish an art journal, did not prove the indiffer-ence of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with eathu support, and the result was a grea artistic and commercial triumph-THE ALDINE.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has some of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures. the rarest specimen of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding nom-ber off rds a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the end of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, has compared with rivals of a similar class THE ALDINE is unique and original conception-alone and un approached-absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a com

American institution, it does not confine ittell mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art takte, one that will discriminate coly on grounds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while place ing before the patrons of THE ALDINE, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the always be given to specimens from foreign masters.

The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with THE ALDINE, is an import ant feature, and its magnificent plates are of a size more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of details than can be afforded by any inferior page. The judicious intersper-sion of landscape, marine, figure, and animal subjects, sostain an unabated interest, impos sible where the scope of the work confines the artist too closely to a single style of subject. The literature of THE ALDINE is a light and
