

Thomas Truthwaite all the time from boyhood and he wanted to help him along.

COMMISSIONER/

Q. Who wanted to help him along?

A. Mr. Truthwaite, he had this man working for him all the time.

Q. How do you know he bought it?

A. He bought it from Andrew Prince.

Q. How do you know?

A. I know the sale, I saw him buying it.

Q. You were present when he bought it? A. Yes.

Q. How do you know? A. I know because I was there.

MR. HEAP:

Q. How much money was paid for it? A. I could not tell you.

Q. Did he pay any money for it?

A. He kept over 100 head of cattle there, and had to get some wood. He had to buy the land to get the wood to build the stables with. That is how he came to buy it. and he put Peter George there to stay in the house because that was his man.

Q. Where did he get the stuff to make the house with?

A. We got it out of the lot.

Q. Off the lot? A. Yes.

Q. There was some lumber I suppose used? A. Yes.

Q. He had to get lumber of course. A. Yes.

Q. Who got that? A. Truthwaite.

Q. Where did he get it? A. I don't know where he got it, but he ^fbought it down there and helped to make the doors and windows for him.

Q. Did Thomas Truthwaite--- was he down on the lot at any time while the house was being built? A. He was there every day.

Indian Affairs. (RG 10, Volume 3735, file 27117-3)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA

Poor-Copy