WILL NOT REVISE THE CONSTITUTION

PROPOSAL DEFEATED IN BELGIAN HOUSE

Demonstrations by the Socialists--Police Fire on the Crowds-Several People Killed.

Brussels, April 18.—The Chamber of representatives to-day by 84 to 64 votes rejected the proposal to revise the Beluniversal suffrage.

The debate in the chamber followed yesterday's lines. M. Smeets (Socialist) accused the gov erament of being anxious to let loose 60,000 soldiers against their brethren. But, he added, they would be unable to exterminate Socialism and enough Socialists would remain to continue the struggle. As the government was not duty, nothing was left but for the Socialists to address His Majesty directly, and plead for his intervention. If he but said the word, peace would be reestablished. The vote was then taken.

the chamber. The Socialists held a meeting in the Maison due Peuple, at which M. Van der Velde, the leader of the Socialist movement in Belgium, was ed his hearers to be calm. He said that he hoped King Leopold still would in-tervene. The meeting adopted a resolution to continue the strike and dis-persed without disorder. A serious riot curred at Bruges in Flanders. The rioting at Louvain began at about shalf past seven this evening. A band of Socialists paraded the streets of the town, smashing windows with bolts and airets. They broke through the police cordon in the Rue Tirlemont. The civic guards stationed in the Palace St. Antoine became hard-pressed by the rioters and fired a volley. The guard fired a second volley in front of the Catholic club. It is reported that 12 policemen were wounded. In some quarters the number of wounded policemen is placed at 20 and several e said to have bee nmortally injured All houses of Louvain are barricaded and maintenance of order has been assumed by the military.
