NOTICE TO MARINERS. Philadelphia, July 8—Capt Hand of str Lebanon, hence at Salem on Saturday last, reports Friday, while passing through Pollock Rip Sine, found the bell buoy marking the 18 foot lump about 600 feet SW of true position, having, no doubt, been dragged by some passing tow.

Tompkinsville, St., July 9—The Lightouse Board issues the following notice:

A red bell buoy has been established in 30 feet of water, one-half mile to the southward of the entrance of Jones' Iniet, south shore of Long Island, New York; Smith's house, Jones' Beach, N; bar entrance buoy (spar), N; Liffe Saving Station, Zach's Iniet, NEXES, E; Long Beach hotel, WNW-W.

The outer sea buoy, red second class nun, No 2, at Jones' Iniet, has been taken up and discontinued. The number of second class, red, nun buoy on Black Warrior, off Rockaway shoals, Long Island, has been changed from 4 to 2.

A black spar buoy, No 7½, has been stab-away shoals, Long Island, has been changed from 4 to 2.

A black spar buoy, No 7½, has been established in 9 feet of water off New Baltimore, Hudson River, New York; New Baltimore, Wharf, Signy, 400 feet distant; New Baltimore Post light, NyE; bearings magnetic.

Newport, RI, July 10—Government has placed a buoy on the west end of the spit at Goat Island, where so many vessels have gone aground, while entering this harbor since a portion of the spit has been dredged off and the Deiphin changed. The buoy marks the extreme outer edge of the shoal and should be left to port in entering the harbor.

Summer Tourists Beginning to Arrive -Good Hauls of Herring-General Notes

Grand Manan, July 13-Doctor and Mrs. Glering of Boston and Mrs. Gler. ing's son, Mr. Farnsworth, are visiting the island. Mrs. Glering is the widow of the late George Farnsworth of Boston, who, with Mr. Smith of the firm of Houghton, Mifflin & Co. (f Boston, purchased the old McDonald estate at South Head, which property they have held ever since, but have only visited it once or twice. We hope Dr. Glering and wife and Mr. Smith may make some use of the property, which has on it the famous Gull cliffs of South West Head, and is a fine location for a summer hotel and summer cottages. It would increase the number of tourists visiting the island and help North Head and South Head
