

The Architectural students are advised to spend the vacation in architects' offices.

The minimum percentage of marks required for practical work must be made in the case of vacation notes and theses.

Supplemental Examinations, Etc.

A candidate below the standing of the third year, who has failed in one or two subjects, will be required to take supplemental examinations in such subjects.

In case a candidate has failed in both the written examinations and the practical work in a subject, it will be necessary for him to obtain the minimum percentage required for practical work in the written examinations, and do such extra practical work during the ensuing session as may be prescribed.

Should his failure have been in only the practical work of a subject, he will be required to take a supplemental written examination, and to do such extra practical work during the ensuing session as may be prescribed. If his failure has been in the written examination only, he will be required to take a written supplemental examination. In each of these cases the minimum percentage required for a written examination will be exacted.

The supplemental written examinations in subjects taught by the staff of the school will begin on the first day of the session. In other subjects they will be held at the time of the annual examinations.

In the case where a candidate fails to pass a supplemental examination it will count as one of the two supplemental examinations which may be allowed him after the next annual examination.

Candidates of the standing of the third year will not be allowed the privilege of a supplemental examination.

Candidates who fail in being promoted to a higher year or in graduating will be required to take again the whole
