A LESSON FROM CHINA

We think of China as a backyard nation and proudly assume that in every essential regard we are a long way in advance of her. But we might well take a leaf out of her book with respect to her present attitude on the matter of gambling. Anti-gambling crusades are being prosecuted in all parts of the country, and not only churches and schools, but trade and labour unions are taking part in seeking to abolish the vice. At Canton recently 15,000 citizens marched in a parade to present to the governor a petition signed by more than 15,000 members of the Anti-gambling Society. The trouble is that a crusade of that sort here would have to take in our fashionable bridge and whist parties, as well as "craps" and poker and betting on the races, and this would doubtless make it very unpopular in our "best circles." But it is something to see another nation, even if it is only poor old China, clearing its skirts of this evil.—Watchman-Examiner.

AN INDIAN VOLSTEAD LAW.

The members of the sweeper caste at Delhi, India, have decided that any sweeper found violating the local prohibition law is to be beaten fifty times with his shoes, his moustach is to be shaved off on one side, and a fine of five cowries is to be imposed. Every member of the caste is an unofficial "Prohibition enforcement officer" and there is a reward of from one to five rupes for giving information against a person using intoxicating liquors.—From the Missionary Review of the World.

THE CLEAN-UP SEASON

(From the London Advertiser.)
 Now that we are at the season of the year when the clean-up spirit comes and dwells in our midst, why not clean up on this list?
 The man who spits on the sidewalk.
 The chap who cuts across the lawn.
 The girls who cut their skirts eight inches from the waist.
 The man who throws lighted matches and butts any place without looking or caring.
 The fellow who drops into your office for no reason and spends an hour.
 The wise man who wants to tell you where the best bootlegger in town resides.
 The resident who is always going to paint up and fix up his premises, but never does it.
 Of course, you can add to the list as occasion warrants.

DRIED STRAWBERRY

Soon we shall have the strawberry as a dried fruit. A method of preserving it in this shape has been satisfactorily worked out, the product having the appearance of a small reddish fig, with the consistency of a raisin. The dried strawberry retains the original flavor to a large extent.

"SIX MONTHS AGO"

"It's hard to realize that six months ago I couldn't walk across the floor and now I am so well!"

"I have never been very strong but the heat last summer was too much for me. This and the fact that my husband was out of work and I had to work day and night to keep from starving, left me a physical wreck. Luckily my husband was able to get a good job just when I had to go to bed. I tried everything I could think of to get strong, but each day I seemed to be getting weaker and weaker. I was reduced to a skeleton, I couldn't eat or sleep, I had no strength left and finally I was so weak that in trying to cross the floor one day I collapsed. I was so ill and weak that I didn't care whether I lived or died. And then I heard about that marvellous preparation—Carnol! A friend of mine had used it with wonderful results and as it had done so much for her, I decided to try it. The results were nothing less than miraculous. In two weeks I was able to get up and walk about the house. My appetite had returned. I was actually hungry. I could sleep when I went to bed, something I had not been able to do for months. I have already taken six bottles of Carnol and I am still taking it. I weigh more today than I ever weighed before in my life. I sleep like a child. I am never tired and my skin is as clear and my cheeks as rosy as a girl's. I bless the day I heard about Carnol." Mrs. E., Toronto.

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle and he will refund your money. 8-122

ACADIA DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Gives Another Successful Performance of "A Private Secretary"

The Acadia Dramatic Society repeated their success of a few weeks ago on Saturday evening when they again presented the three act farcical comedy, "A Private Secretary," at the Opera House, which was literally packed to the doors. All the parts were splendidly taken and, as before, William Miller and Gordon Goucher made a hit with the audience. The cast was as follows:

- Douglas Cattermole. Arthur Brown, 24
- Mrs. Stead (Douglas' landlady) Jean Walker '24
- Sydney Gibson (a tailor). Cecil Lewis '22
- Harry Marsland. Harrison Goodwin '24
- Rev. Robert Spalding. William Miller '22
- Mr. Cattermole (Douglas' uncle) Gordon Goucher '22
- Knox (a writ server) Harry Atkinson '22
- Miss Ashford Edith Davison '23
- Mr. Marsland (Harry's uncle) Harold Bannerman '24
- Edith Marsland (Mr. Marsland's daughter) Zella Parlee '22
- Eva Webster (Friend to Edith) Margaret Ford '22
- John (a servant) Horace Wetmore '22

The musical selections by the Acadia Orchestra were a feature of the entertainment. All the numbers were presented in an excellent manner and were greatly appreciated by the audience.

Between Acts I and II Dr. G. B. Cutten presented distinction caps and athletic and literary A's to the following:
 Distinction caps—A. K. Eaton '22
 C. K. McLeod '22, A. R. Clark '24, T. H. Robinson '24.
 Triple A (football, basketball, track)—A. B. Corey '22.

- Double A (football and basketball)—C. A. Lewis '22, C. E. A. Brown '24, Single A—Football—S. R. Read '22, H. K. Grimmer '22, Basketball—R. D. H. Wigmore '23, T. H. Robinson '24, S. S. Chipman '24, Hockey—S. M. Hirtle '23, A. R. Clark '24; R. J. Conrad, E. '22; B. F. Crowdis, E. '22; G. H. Morrison, E. '23; B. D. Elderkin '25. Track—G. C. Hicks '22, C. H. Atkinson '22, H. H. Wetmore '22, F. V. Anthony '23, C. W. McCready '23.
- Literary A—J. W. W. Lank, L. P. Steeves, A. B. Corey, G. H. Goucher, A. K. Eaton, H. S. Thurston, E. C. Prime, H. H. Wetmore. All these are members of the Senior class, and it is the largest number of literary A's ever won by one class.
- Debating A—J. W. W. Lank '22, C. H. Atkinson '22, T. H. Robinson '23.

SPRING TIME

The apple-bloom is all a-blow
 In leafy orchards, high and low.
 O'er dale and down it flutters light,
 A cloud of filmy pink and white.
 It blossoms by the cottage door
 To prove that Spring has come once more,
 And sheds its witching, sweet perfume,
 The apple-bloom.

The apple-bloom bestrews the grass
 With fragrant petals as we pass;
 And long before the break of day
 It joins the breezes in their play.
 But when the sun is in the west,
 And all the world is rocked to rest,
 It folds its buds amid the gloom,
 The apple-bloom

THE SEASON'S COLOR

White will be this summer's color, if one is to judge from the advance models of summer skirts and frocks. Fancy silks of heavier sporting grades are used for many sports skirts that are full, graceful and apparently offer all the freedom of movement necessary, even for tennis and golf.

The more a man gets the more he wants—unless the stipendiary magistrate is dealing it out.

Foolish Saving

A penny saved is not always a penny earned. Sometimes it is two pennies lost. The merchant who spends nothing on advertising loses much more than he saves.

The money spent for plate glass windows is not looked on as lost; nor is the money spent on better interior lighting.

Anything that increases favor, that adds to sales, that multiplies customers is very properly regarded as a good investment.

Advertising is a good investment—just as plate glass windows are. Advertising sells more goods to more persons than shop-windows do.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

Do you resent having a merchant address his message to you in the form of an advertisement in our columns? On the contrary, is not your impulse to respond to his friendly overtures?
