

Custody of the Bond. III. The bond of suretyship which shall be executed by such Inspector and his sureties, by virtue of this Act, shall be made and shall be kept at the office of the Clerk of the Corporation of the city for which such Inspector shall be appointed; And every person shall be entitled to have communication and copy of any such bond or suretyship at such Clerk's office, upon payment of one shilling currency for each communication, and of two shillings and sixpence currency for each copy. 5

Fees for copies, &c. Inspector to be sworn. The Oath. Fees for recording oath, &c. IV. Each person appointed an Inspector of Hops under this Act, shall before he shall act as such, take and subscribe an oath before the Mayor of the city for which he shall be appointed (which Mayor is hereby authorized to administer the same), in the bonds following, to wit: 10
 "I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will faithfully, truly and impartially, to the best of my judgment, skill and understanding, do and perform the office of an Inspector of Hops, according to the true intent and meaning of an Act of the Legislature of this Province, intituled, 15
 "An Act to provide for the Inspection of Hops," and that I will not directly or indirectly, by myself or by any other person or persons whomsoever, grow, produce, buy or sell any hops on my own account, or upon the account of any other person or persons whomsoever; nor will I be or remain in the employment or service of any person or 20
 "persons who may be engaged in the growth of hops, or consumption of hops, during the time I shall continue such Inspector. So help me God;" which oath shall be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the city where the same shall be taken; And for recording such oath, and for a certificate thereof, the Clerk shall be entitled to demand 25 and have the sum of two shillings and sixpence, and no more; and shall give communication of the original to any person who shall apply for the same, on payment of one shilling currency for such communication, and two shillings and sixpence currency for each copy.

Inspector to have proper building for storage of Hops. Owner to pay cost of moving them, &c. V. In any place where there shall be an Inspector of Hops, it shall 30
 be the duty of such Inspector to provide himself with suitable and convenient premises for the storage and inspection of hops, and to keep all bales and packages of hops delivered to him for inspection, whilst they remain in his possession, in some dry place, safe from the injuries of the weather or of floods, and under a tight roof, and if in 35 sheds the same shall be good and sufficient and enclosed on every side, and the packages shall be so deposited that no moisture shall be imparted to them from the earth; and for the time which they may be in his possession previous to the inspection thereof, and for twenty-four hours after such inspection, the said Inspector shall be entitled to make 40
 no charge for storage, but all trouble and expense attendant upon the loading, unloading, and moving the said hops shall be at the cost of the person at whose request the said hops shall be inspected:

Examination and classification of Hops. VI. It shall be the duty of every such Inspector to receive into his premises provided as aforesaid for such purpose, all hops presented to 45
 him for inspection, and to examine and inspect the same by thoroughly cutting into and examining each bale and package, and he shall classify and assort the same into three different grades or classes according to their different qualities and conditions, to be denominated, Number 1; Merchantable; Number 2. 50
