B. for his offence, to forfeit and pay immediately, or on or before the—day of —, [here state the penalty actually imposed, or the amount of the injury done, as the case may be,] and also pay the sum of—for costs, and in default of payment of the said sums, to be imprisoned in the County Gaol of the said County, [or District, Riding or Division, as the case may be,] for the space of— unless the said sums shall be sooner paid, or, [I order that the said sums shall be paid by the said A. B., on or before the —day of—,] and I direct that the said sum of—, [the penalty,] shall be paid to—of—, [Treasurer of the County or District, &c.] aforesaid, in which the said offence was committed, to be by him applied according to the provisions of this Act, or, I order that the sum of—[the sum for the amount of any injury done] shall be paid to E. F., the party aggrieved, unless he is unknown or has been examined in proof of the offence [in which case state the fact, and dispose of the whole like the penalty as before] and I order that the said sum of—for costs shall be paid to—the complainant.

"Given under my hand and seal, the "day and year first above mentioned."

16. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorise, or be construed to authorise any Justice of the Peace to hear and determine any case of trespass under this Act, in which the title to any lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any interest therein, or accruing thereupon, shall be called in question or affected in any manner howsoever; but every such case of trespass shall be dealt with according to law, in the same manner, in all respects, as if this Act had not been passed.

17. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person who shall think himself aggrieved by any conviction or decision under this Act, may appeal to the next Court of General Quarter Sessions, which shall be holden not less than twelve days after the day of such conviction or decision, for the district wherein the cause of complaint shall have arisen; provided that such person shall give to the other party a notice in writing of such appeal, and of the cause and matter thereof, within three days after such conviction or decision, and seven days at the least before such Sessions, and shall also either remain in custody until the Sessions, or enter into a recognizance with two sufficient sureties before a Justice of the Peace, conditioned personally to appear at the said Sessions and to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such costs as shall be by the Court awarded; and upon such notice being given, and such recognizance being entered into, the Justice before whom the same shall be entered into shall liberate such person, if in custody, and the Court at such Sessions shall hear and determine the matter of the appeal, and shall make such order therein, with or without cost to either party, as to the Court shall seem meet; and in case of the dismissal of the appeal, or the affirmation of the conviction, shall order and adjudge the offender to be punished according to the conviction, and to pay such costs as shall be awarded, and shall if necessary, issue process for enforcing such judgment.

18. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever an appeal shall be made from the decision of any Justice of the Peace under this Act, the Court of Quarter Sessions shall have power to empanel a Jury to try the matter on which such decision may have been made, and to administer to such Jury the following oath:—

"You—do solemnly swear that you will well and truly try the matter of the complaint of C. D. against E. F. and a true verdict give according to the evidence.—So help you God."

And the Court on the finding of such Jury shall thereupon give such judgment as the circumstances of the case may require: Provided always, that such Court shall not in any case adjudge the payment of a fine exceeding Five Pounds in addition to the costs, or to order the imprisonment of the person so convicted for any period exceeding one month; and all fines imposed and recovered by the judgment of such Court shall be applied and disposed of in the
