

An Act to amend the Patent Act.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as The Patent Act Amendment Act, 1900. Short title.

2. Paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of section 37 of The Patent Act, chapter 61 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 6 of chapter 24 of the statutes of 1892, is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—
- 10 “(a) That such patent and all the rights and privileges thereby granted shall cease and determine, and that the patent shall be null and void at the end of two years from the date thereof, unless the patentee or his legal representatives, or his assignee, within that period, or any authorized extension there-15 of, commence, and after commencement, continuously carry on in Canada the construction or manufacture of the invention patented in such a manner that any person desiring to use it, or to purchase the article patented, may obtain it or cause it 20 to be made for him at a reasonable price at some manufactory or establishment for making or constructing it in Canada; provided that if any dispute arises between the patentee or his legal representatives or assignee and any person desiring to use or purchase the said patented article or to cause it to be made as aforesaid, as to what is a reasonable price, the Exche-25 quer Court of Canada shall, upon the application of either party, fix and determine what shall be a reasonable price, and the patentee or his legal representatives or assignee shall be bound to sell the said patented article, or permit it to be used or manufactured as aforesaid, at the price so fixed; provided 30 further that the notice of the time and place fixed for hearing the said application to fix a reasonable price shall be published in the Canada Gazette for one calendar month prior to the date of such hearing, and that any person desiring to purchase the said patented article may attend and shall be entitled to be 35 heard upon such application, and that when a reasonable price is fixed as aforesaid it shall remain in force for the duration of the said patent, unless after the expiry of three years another application is made to fix such a reasonable price, and upon such application being made a hearing thereof shall take place 40 in the manner hereinabove provided, and the price shall be fixed by the said court in the manner aforesaid, and shall remain in force for the duration of the said patent, unless a further or other application is, in like manner, made from time
