

Forestry Week to Commence

(October 20th to 27th)

in, the fall, the time of
l. You mean to say you the time, well this is the term each year. It's eer is as cold as it gets The week kicks off on suitable for the whole en's Competition. This s' Teams from all over ompete in all sorts of awing, crosscut sawing,

g. UNB have won the e last two years running s year. So come up and opportunity to observe hand will present itself buses will be leaving ilding on the hour and welcome, so come and taking place during the vs Nursing Hallowe'en

the week, one can see dland Disco Band, G.B. ous debate on the topic
w Brunswick for Fiber oks very carefully, one ters dressed in SUITS on ill.

good time at any given always high so come on forester for a night or

SCHEDULE FOR FORESTRY WEEK

Sat. 20 at 8:00 am Chapman Field
14th Annual International Woodsmans Competition
Joe's Diner will be open for business
Admission Free

Sat. 20 at 8:00 p.m.-? HAMMERFEST Busses leave Forestry Building every hour on the hour from 8:00 p.m. No admission

Sun. 21 at 3:00 p.m. Spaghetti Diner Lower Dunn Parking Lot - $1.00 per plate

Mon 22 at 6:00 p.m. Moosehead Brewery Tour
See Graham Savage at 455-8418
Admission $3.00

Mon 22 at 8:00 p.m. Wildlife Nite in the Stud
Contact Stas Olpinski

Tues 23 at 7:30 in MacGlaggen Hall Great Debate Topic: Forest Management for Wood Fiber or Sawlogs in N.B.
No Admission Charge.

Tues. 23 following debate Queens Socisl Stud Building cost $1.50

Wed 24 Newf Nite in STUD at 8:00 p.m.
Admission $1.00 Contact any Newf

Thurs 25 Faculty Night and Bean Supper at Buchanan Field 6:30 p.m.
$1.00 per plate

Friday 26 Bushmans Ball at 9:00 p.m.
Fredericton Elk Club $7.00 per couple Contact Robin Ballance at 472-4058

Sat 27 Nurses Social Hallowe'en Party at 8:30 p.m. in STUD.
Cost $1.50 per person.

All events will be cheaper for Forestry Association and FESA members.

