THE COLORADO FUEL AND IRON COMPANY
DENVER, COLORADO

J. F. WELBORN,
PRESIDENT
E. S. COWDRICK,
ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

Denver, March 25, 1919.

Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King,
The Roxborough,
Ottawa, Canada.

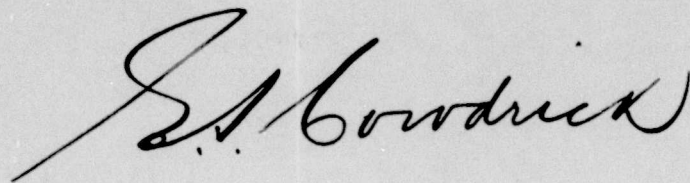

Dear Mr. King:

I have just reached Denver after going from Chicago to Cleveland and carrying out our program with regard to the article for the Iron Trade Review.

I found the editor of the Iron Trade Review very cordial and seemingly somewhat impressed by the attention we had paid to his request for an article on our Industrial Plan. I will call your attention to the article when it is printed.

In the brief time I had with you at Chicago I did not have an opportunity to inquire in regard to the political matters in which I understand you are engaged with renewed activity. I am not at all acquainted with Canadian politics, but I want to assure you of my best wishes for your success in your endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers
