OFFICE OF THE PRIME MINISTER
1946
MEMORANDUM for the Prime Minister.

Mr. Leslie Roberts telephoned this afternoon to say that he will be coming to Ottawa late to-morrow evening and will be here all day Friday and Saturday, February 1st and 2nd.

I explained to him that this was a particularly bad time to try to secure an interview and I think he appreciates this but he asked me if I would see if there was any possibility whatever of his having five minutes of your time to get your advice with regard to an article he is doing for Saturday Evening Post on the mutual defence of Canada and the United States. He thinks that the article might be made quite useful in placing the Canadian point of view before the large number of American readers of Saturday Evening Post.
