CONSTITUTION AND REGISTRY.

- 6. Any seven or more members of a trade union may, by subscribing their names to the rules of the union and otherwise complying with the provisions of this Act with respect to registry, register such trade union under this Act, but if any one of the purposes of such trade union is unlawful, such registration shall be void. R.S., c. 131, s. 6.
- 7. The Registrar General of Canada shall be the Registrar under this Act. R.S., c. 131, s. 13.
- 8. With respect to the registry, under this Act, of trade unions, the following provisions shall have effect:—
- (a) An application to register the trade union and printed copies of its rules, together with a list of the titles and names of its officers, shall be sent to the Registrar under this Act;
- (b) The Registrar, upon being satisfied that the trade union has complied with the regulations respecting registry in force under this Act, shall register such trade union and such rules;
- (c) No trade union shall be registered under a name identical with that under which any other trade union has been registered, or so nearly resembling such name as to be likely to deceive the members or the public;
- (d) If a trade union which applies to be registered has been in operation for more than a year before the date of such application, there shall be delivered to the Registrar, before the registry thereof, a general statement of the receipts, funds, effects and expenditure of such trade union, in the same form and showing the same particulars as if it was
