

The Easter offertory exceeded that of last year by only $1.33. This was rather disappointing, as we hoped for a considerably larger sum. It will be seen that it leaves us with a deficit of $92.66, besides which we owe a balance of coal account, and some unexpected bills for repairs to plumbing and repairs to organ amounting altogether to nearly $150. But we carried forward quite as much, or perhaps more, at Easter of last year, so that if we have not cleared all off, we at any rate have not fallen behind.

The number of Communicants on Easter Day was 477.

At the Mid-day Service the congregation was estimated at 470, being probably the largest number ever present in the Cathedral except on the occasion of the visit of the Archbishop of Canterbury. A change made in the seating of the North Aisle helped materially to accommodate this unusual number.

The Easter offertory was just $300, besides which there was placed on the Altar a bag of gold sent in by the Women's League $560. There is more to come in, to be added to this. The amount would have been much greater had it not been that a number of women of the League are discouraged by the delay on the part of the men in doing something. As to this we may observe that there has been some rumour of the fourth crossing pier being taken up whenever its character and probable cost is more definitely ascertained.

The children's offering on Easter Day for Indian Missions was $44. Their gifts for the pier will not come in at present, as that fund has been delayed this year in order to allow first place to the Indian Missions.

The total amounts given through the offertory on Easter Day was therefore over $900.

Amongst the Easter gifts to the Cathedral is a beautiful Solid Silver gold-lined box for Communion breads from the members of the Drew family, Brunswick Avenue, in memory of Mrs. Drew who died about two years ago. The box was made by Roden Brothers, Silversmiths, from designs furnished by Canon Macnab. On the lid of the box is a deeply engraved Latin Cross. On the sides and ends are engraved the following inscriptions:

"In loving memory of our Mother, Phyllis M. Drew, June 6th 1905"
 "Her Children arise up and call her Blessed." Proverbs xxxi, 28.
 "I am the Bread of Life" S. John vi, 35
 The Cathedral. S. Alban the Martyr.

S. ALBAN'S CATHEDRAL CHOIR GUILD. SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Since the last Annual Meeting (3rd April 1906) the monthly meetings have been fairly well attended.

The choir being smaller, fewer new vestments have been required, namely 6 boys' surplices, 4 men's surplices 1 boy's cassock.

There was also made a surplice for the Rev. J. B. Fotheringham at the time of his being ordained Priest.

The Annual Choir Guild Concert which was held on 15th November 1906, was a great success in every way. The amount realized after all expenses were paid was $48.65.

Miss Archbold having gone to Minden to keep house for her brother, Mrs. Robertson was appointed at the November meeting Secretary-Treasurer in her place.

Special thanks are due to our Vice-President and the Members of the Committee for their constant and faithful work.

The members of the Choir Guild wish to express their gratitude to Miss Maria Capreol for her kindness in being always willing to help in the making of surplices.

ELEANOR M. ROBERTSON,
Secretary-Treasurer.

ST. ALBAN'S CATHEDRAL BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY. ANNUAL REPORT.

Although we have had 12 new members during the year we are numerically only one stronger than last year, having 62 on the roll instead of 61. Of these 62, 24 have this year been Honorary Members i. e. not able to come to the meetings but have paid their fees; 9 members have left, 1 transferred to another Branch and one has been called to a Higher Service.

There have been 31 meetings with an average attendance of 15.3, not quite as good an average as last year's which was 16.

The members seem to enjoy the monthly addresses given at the devotional meetings, for the attendance has risen from being the lowest on that day to the highest, reaching as high as 26 at one meeting.

Missionary addresses have been given during the year by Miss Tilley, Miss Osler, Mrs. Macqueen Baldwin of Japan, Miss Halson on the North West, Miss McKim of Persia and Mrs. S. G. Wood and Mrs. Grindlay. Besides these addresses notes of the Epip' any lectures on Melanesia and New Zealand have been read to the Branch as well as extracts from the New Era and books from the library.
