QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Miscellaneous.

COLLIE DOG TO BE TRAINED.

Who would take my eight-months-old collie dog and train him to drive cattle and sheep on road and farm? About how long would it take, and probable charge? SUBSCRIBER.

Ans.—Persons willing to undertake this kind of work might advertise their services in our column for condensed advertisements; rate, 3c. a word.

MARE FAILING TO BREED.

For the benefit of new subscribers, will you please publish the way to cause a mare to breed? I have a mare about fourteen years old. She had a colt about seven years ago, which died, and have never been able to get her in foal again. D. B.

Ans.—The treatment referred to, and recommended by a correspondent, was bleeding the mare when in heat and before having her served, a fad which was in vogue forty years ago, and in which some horsemen had and some yet have a good deal of faith. It is not difficult or expensive to experiment with, and is not likely to do any harm, if the mare is not worked for a few days after. We should have more faith in the operation of opening the os uteris, or mouth of the womb, before service, which operation most stallion grooms understand.

CHOPPING.

In July, 1906, A & Co. bought an engine from B, A & Co. giving notes payable January 1st, 1907. They also agreed to do B's chopping, threshing and sawing free for the season. Threshing was done in October, and chopping half day in December, and on January 1st, 1907, all accounts and notes were settled up, and A & Co. shares divided. Now A & Co. are starting out for a new season to chop and saw, and B wants to chop, and thinks he should get it done free, on the ground that the grain is last year's crop. A & Co. claim not, as this is a new year for the business, and are opening their book account as such. Do you consider A & Co. are obliged to do said work free or not?

A CONSTANT READER.

Ans.—It depends upon what the parties may fairly be taken to have meant by "The season" when they made their contract. Your statement of facts is not sufficient to enable us to judge. There may be a custom of the locality with regard to such a matter, and, if so, the parties may be legally considered to have contracted with reference to such local custom.

WILL WE HAVE TO LABEL THE JOKES?

A subscriber, who is evidently not Irish, takes exception to the article headed "Five Pounds of Foam," which appeared in the "Dairy" department of our issue, March 14th, over the name of A. Dunn, Secretary of the North Oxford Cow-testing Association. Our friend expresses a fear that Mr. Dunn must have "a shingle loose when he says he can get five pounds of foam in a milk pail." Of course, Mr. Dunn never was guilty of any such absurd claim. He was simply telling about a couple of cows belonging to a neighbor, who believed they were giving an equal quantity of milk, but when he came to weigh it, one gave five pounds per day more than the other. The milk of the poorer cow foamed more than the other cow's, hence she deceived her owner to that extent, and, as he aptly but humorously expressed it, "one gave 25 pounds of milk, and the other 20 pounds milk, and 5 pounds of foam or air."

Subscriber also criticises Mr. Dunn's computation of the time required for weighing and keeping track of the milk of his cows. The estimate was half a minute per cow for each milking, or three minutes per month, or thirty minutes for a season.

Subscriber has carefully reckoned it out to thirty minutes per month, or five hours for a season of ten months. For the information of new subscribers, it may be well to explain that according to the rules of the Canadian cow-testing associations, members are required to weigh their milk, and take samples for testing on only three days per month. Hence, Mr. Dunn's calculation was correct. If anything, he has overstated the time it takes to weigh and sample the milk.

"IT'S ONLY A COLD, A TRIFLING COUGH"

Thousands have said this when they caught cold. Thousands have neglected to cure the cold. Thousands have filled a Consumptive's grave through neglect. Never neglect a cough or cold. It can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

is the medicine you need. It strikes at the very foundation of all throat or lung complaints, relieving or curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Sore Throat, and preventing Pneumonia and Consumption.

It has stood the test for many years, and is now more generally used than ever. It contains all the lung healing virtues of the pine tree combined with Wild Cherry Bark and other pectoral remedies. It stimulates the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation and subdues inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts, loosens the phlegm and mucous, and aids nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulations. Don't be humbugged into accepting an imitation of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and price 25 cts.

Mr. Julian J. LeBlanc, Belle Cote, N.S., writes: "I was troubled with a bad cold and severe cough, which assumed such an attitude as to keep me confined to my house. I tried several remedies advertised but they were of no avail. As a last resort I tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and one bottle cured me completely."
