we find mentioned in foly writ are too apt to be rudely dispelled on nearer view and close acquaintance; for the ravages of time and the neglect of degenerate gov-ernments have left most of them forlorn and repulsive, and inhabited by forlorn and repulsive people—so travelers say: The still surviving beauty and importance of Damascus, however, in spite of all dis-advantages, make it, in a measure, an exception in the long roll of decay and departed glory. We may well venerate and admire the spectacle of the first city in history outliving so many younger and greater ones. Its thousands of years are a kind of immortality. Damascus is the oldest city in the world. Tyre and Sidon have crumbled on the shore; Baalbec is a ruin; Pal-myra is buried in a desert; Nineveh and Babylon have disappeared from the Tig-ris and the Euphrates. An Old Soldier's EXPERIENCE.

" Calvert, Texas, "I wish to express my appreciation of the valuable qualities of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as a cough remedy.

"While with Churchill's army, just before the battle of Vicksburg, I contracted a se-vere cold, which terminated in a dangerous cough. I found no relief till on our march we came to a country store, where, on asking for some remedy, I was urged to try AvEa's CHERRY PRETORAL. "I did so, and was rapidly cured. Since then I have kept the PECTORAL constantly by me, for family use, and I have found it to be an invaluable remedy for throat and lung diseases. J. W. WHITLEY."

Thousands of testimonials certify to the prompt cure of all bronchial and lung affections, by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily.
