S. F. HUESTIS,

FOR 1884. Story of Merv.

STANDARD LIBRARY

By Edmond O'Donovan.

Under the title, "The Merv Oasis," Mr O'Donovan published a work recently in England, in two volumes, which created a decided sensation Though its success was great, the amount of minute detail, which added to its value in many respects, was thought likely to decrease its interest to the general reader, and a condensation was made by the author himself, which is hereby given complete. As a story of travel it is one of the most thrilling of recent years. As a work of description its importance and frithfulness have been promptly conceded. The country described - Central Asia-has been, one may say, rediscovered by the writer, and his powers of observation and his literary skill, derived from many years' service as correspond at for an important London journal, give the work month. After that date the price will be $5. an accuracy and finish seldom found. No ro mance could be found more thrilling no text book more careful in its state-

Why we cannot give the names of the 26 Books.

1. As they are all to be NEW books, we do not as yet know their titles. However. they will consist of Travels, History, Biography, Popular Science, Miscellany -all New, Standard and Popular. Remember they will be mailed you every two weeks, post-paid, 2. It would not be politic to give the names in advance; for, if we did, those hostile to the cheap book movement in the book trade could easily combine and cause us heavy loss. The present retail prices of such imported books, cloth binding, as these aggregate from $50,00 upward. By our plan we will be able to supply these at $4 to those who subscribe in advance; $5 to all others. This assurance must suffice.
