A HANDBOOK

TO The Colonial Clergy Act.

A Guide for the use of Colonial Clergy officiating in England

BY A COLONIAL PRIEST.

A booklet intended chiefly for the guidance of Colonially-ordained clergy desiring to officiate in England; but of special interest to the clergy of the Scotch Episcopal and of the American Episcopal Churches. It should also be read by the Incumbents of English parishes in which clergy from abroad occasionally officiate, and by all interested in the missionary work of the church.

PAY LESS FOR A BETTER LIGHT.

You need not put up with the nuisance and bother of ordinary lamps, merely because you are outside the reach of gas and electricity. You can now have a light as good as the city man's best. You can enjoy the convenience of gas or electricity, and have a better, softer and pleasanter light than either for less money than your smoky, troublesome lamp is now costing you. No dangerous new-fangled illuminant either, for

The Angle Lamp

burns common kerosene or coal oil, but it is constructed on a new principle—a principle that makes kerosene the best, cheapest and most satisfactory of all lighting methods. Safer and more reliable than gasoline or acetylene. As convenient as gas or electricity. It is lighted and extinguished like gas. May be burned high or low without odor. No smoke, no danger. Filled while lighted and without moving. Requires filling but once or twice a week. It floods a room with its beautiful, soft, mellow light that has no equal. WRITE FOR OUR CATALOG 1, and our proposition for

30 DAYS FREE TRIAL.

Do it now—right away. It will tell you more facts about the How and Why of good light than you can learn in a lifetime's experience with poor methods.
