

Keep a Kodak Story of the Baby.

And, along with it, written on the film at the time, keep the dates and titles. How old was baby when this was taken? Where were we the year that that was taken? Such records mean a great deal when baby has begun outgrowing baby ways and time has begun playing tricks with memory.

And to make an authentic, permanent record, on the negative, is a simple and almost instantaneous pro-

Liesemer & Kalbfleish THE CORNER HARDWARE.

With receipts of cattle approximating early 2700 head, and a disposition on the part of packing houses to take advantage of the occasion, trading on the Union Stock Yards in the early hours of yesterday was limited, and it was well on to noon before the cattle began to go over the scales in any great number. At no time was the trading what might be called brisk, and, coupled with the draggy nature of the market, was a sharp de-cline from 25c to 35c per cwt. on the bet-ter class of butchers, while some went further and put the drop at 50c per cwt. The decline principally affected steers and heifers, while fat cows and butcher bulls held reasonably firm at last week's

Not in many a day have there beer well-finished cattle in the alleys and the manner in which the Ontario farmers are finishing off and sending their cattle into the Union Stock Yards reflects infinite credit upon them, especially in view of the high prices and scarcity of oarse grains. As on every other market lay, there were some inferior cattle, but ere were not very many.

The bulk of the offerings were stall-fed cattle.

The calf trade was steady with last week's prices; light sheep steady, while neavy sheep were lower. calves sold at from 14c to 15c; medium calves at from 111c to 121c; common alves and grassers at from 7c to 9c, and neavy, fat calves at from 81c to 101c Sheep and lambs—Light sheep sold at rom 83c to 93c; heavy, fat sheep and pucks at from 74c to 9c, and choice yearings at from 111c to 13c.

Hogs- Hogs were quoted steady at ast week's prices, $16.50, fed and waterd, but the quotations for today's mar ket will be, 50c lower.

Total receipts on the Union Stock Market yesterday were 144 cars, comorising 2638 cattle, 268 calves, 1700 hogs and 178 sheep.
