CAN YOU BEAT IT?

One evening at seven o'clock a man with a wife and eleven children many of them grown up, appeared at the entrance to an entertainment hall, bought two tickets, and demanded that the entire family should be admitted.

The doorkeeper declined to admit the family with the two tickets only "But these are my children," said the man.

"Of course," said the doorkeeper, "but some of them are too old to be admitted free."

"What's that to do with it?" he said on your bills that under twelve are admitted free."

"Not eleven children, children aren't under twelve."

CLIFFORD.

Mr. Joseph Wood has disposed of a registered Clyde fly to Mr.
Jas. Hamilton of Carrick. This was one of the prize takers at all the local shows.

Mr. Wm. Penman of Howick is one of the young men delegates from Huron district, who was selected to attend Government classes at Toronto for taking courses of instruction in stock judging, meat killing, dressing and curing, and he is this week attending the classes in the city.

On Sunday morning at his home in Clifford, Mr. S. Merger was suddenly stricken with an attack of paralysis. He lost the power of speech and the faculty of writing. His arms, hands, and limbs were not affected, but he was unable to speak or write. Partial restoration of the affected disabilities is noticeable within the past two days, and it is hoped improvement, in these conditions may continue.

While hunting in Colquhoun's swamp last Wednesday, Messrs. Jas.
Hamilton of Clifford, and Jas. Newman, shot a hare which is the largest seen in this vicinity. The hare weighed 15 pounds, four times the weight of the species of rabbit found in this vicinity. It is thought to be one of a number of Holland hares imported from Holland by a man in Kitchener. These were seized during the war, and liberated into the swamps.

A new creamery factory is to be established in Clifford. The location is to be the old Chapman property on the Mount Forest road, at the side of Coon Creek. Lumber for the building is already being brought in. Mr. Henry Bieman of Alsfeld will manage the creamery. There is already a number of creameries around us, but if a factory here can manufacture even the cream which is shipped out from this station it will be more activity for Clifford.

THE SOMEWHERE ELSE

"The older I grow," said the mother, looking up from the dishes she was washing, "the more I am convinced that one of the greatest mistakes in my life is to suppose that if we were somewhere else we would be happier."

She had just received a long letter from a young daughter who had gone out from home to earn her living.

"Ella was never satisfied here with us," continued the speaker. "She fancied that happiness was to be found outside in the great world; that all she needed was a chance to be free. Now she realizes how many blessings she had at home that she can never hope to find among strangers."

This mother was right. There is no situation in life that one may not quarrel with. It is the art of the uncultivated nature to overlook the advantages at hand, and continually imagine what might be.

If we are wise we shall adjust ourselves to our conditions and get the greatest possible good out of them; make a little boundary around today and look not beyond it.

WHICH DID HE WANT?

The man had just informed the Pullman agent that he wanted a Pullman berth. "Upper or lower?" asked the agent. "What's the difference?" asked the man. "A difference of fifty cents in this case," replied the agent. "The lower is higher than the upper. The higher price is for the lower. If you want it lower you'll have to go higher. We sell the upper berth lower than the lower. In other words, the higher the lower. Most people don't like the upper, although it is lower on account of it being higher. When you occupy an upper you have to get up to go to bed and get down when you get up.
You can have the lower if you pay higher. The upper is lower than the lower because it is higher. If you are willing to go higher, it will be lower." But the poor man had fainted.

WILD GESE FELL FROM SKY

Wild geese rained from the sky near Everett, Washington, recently.
A man driving a car was overtaken by a severe rain storm. Following a violent flash of lightning, geese began to fall in his vicinity. One goose hit the road in front of the car, several dropped alongside, two more struck the top of the car and bounced off. Passersby in automobiles were busily engaged in picking up the geese in a very short time.
Apparently the geese were in a direct line with the bolt of lightning causing numbers of them to be eletrified when the rain was charge with the electricity.

Books are a wonderful help to a man—especially a bank book.

School Teacher's Life Is Saved

"School teacher—parents dead.
Brought here on a stretcher. Good progress; hope for full recovery." Such was the meagre record of a patient at the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives! Meagre, but how full of deep significance!
"I was so frightened," confessed the girl, her blue eyes reflecting the sky overhead, as she lay beneath the pines up there in Muskoka. "I didn't know what to do. I had no money; and, oh, I was so horribly alone."
"Think of it," and she shivered, "I would be dead—now—if it weren't for this hospital. But I'm not," and there was a ring of victory in her voice. "I'm getting well. Oh! I can hardly believe it."
Just a lonely, motherless girl, but how sweet that life given back to her!

output to more than ten times pay for the cost of the Tonic.
Every reliable farmer will be given a pail or more to try it out for himself. Come in and get a pail.
