5. Jack "docsn't" pay his men with "Trade on of over 500 persons, and as it will also county Town of the contemplated County and Orders " Doesn't he ? Very sly. But our , and to which there will necessarily be query was, Didn't he? and that such was his ble resort, and especially now the whole practice, the work books of those " Rebels" lately is being surveyed, and will be opened up in his employ afford abundant and continued eviement on most advantageous terms to the dence. Should he succeed in raising cash, howthat it offers, for the aforesaid reasons, the ever, better to pay "right down," than to make sition for a Rail or Plank Road Terminus, confessions of judgment, and pay balances of long er Nottawasaga River or Penetanguishine, standing, with heavy expenses, at the ORDER of will possess nothing in themselves, and are our judicial authorities.

6. Jack pays 4s. 41d. A question we propose. which, as a "true" and "honest" man, will ed by Mr. Wm. Telfer, seconded by Mr. Jack be pleased to answer ? Do you really not "know" some in Guelph who pay no more ; and do you not "care" whether or not others would is already of more consequence to 'Foronto be mean enough to follow your example ? Speak ther Penetanguishine, Nottawaga River, or the truth, Jack, although it be difficult.

7. If Jack's workman cannot discern between is rapidly increasing in population and bitter irony and wholesome advice, we are sorry for , that it will soon be worth more, commer- his want of perception, and pity his degraded poto the City of Toronto, than the whole trade sition. 'The supposed ' leader of the gaug' has not "been at work all summor" on twelve pairs red by Mr. Charles Paynter, seconded by of Store Boots, for which he received (without sueing) the highest wages in Guelph, though made for a neighboring town, where there is no regular Bill of wages ; and he defies all the SCABE in Guelph to convict him of ever having caught the abominable infection.

8. In conclusion, we answer Jack's question by. asking another. How many coach-drivers, catwhippers, scabs, renegades, and botches, does it require to make one Royal Scion of King Crispin ? Were our good old King to appear in propria persona, (as Jack shows his Latin, why may not we ?) and visit Jack's "diggins," he would, in Cromwell style, disperse the corrupt assemblyand by whitewash, lath, and plaster, purify the workshop for a gathering of his true and loyal subjects.

THE TRUE SONS OF CRISPIN.
