RUSSIAN TROOPS ARE AGAIN ON THE MOVE

Russian Success in the Carpathians—Greek Garrison in Saloniki Capitulated—Italian Advance in Albania—Little Activity in France

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Greece is the only Balkan nation not yet participated in the European war and is again the centre of interest. It is unofficially reported that King Constantine has abdicated and that Crown Prince has been named as his successor with former Premier Venizelos as the power behind the throne. The British Foreign Office, however, says they had no confirmation of King Constantine's abdication. Entente Allied fleet of 23 warships and seven transports are reported to have arrived off Piraeus, the port to Athens. A despatch from Athens says that probably the Greek elections for October will be postponed for a fortnight. The Greek garrisons at Saloniki, Voden, north-west of Fort Kdraburn have surrendered to the Committee which has taken over the administration of that part of Greek Macedonia, according to despatches from Saloniki. The revolt at Saloniki is confirmed by the British Foreign Office. Greeks friendly to the Entente Allies surrounded the barracks of the Greek infantry at Saloniki and it is said exchanged shots with them. General Sarrajl, the Allied Commander at Saloniki, intervened to prevent further bloodshed. Russian troops have begun another advance. Petrograd reports fighting near Vladimir in Volynia and the region of Halicz in Galicia. The Russians have seized a series of heights in the Carpathians and are making progress westward along the Roumanian frontier. In Bukovina the capture of about sixteen thousand prisoners is claimed by Petrograd. The withdrawal of Austro-German lines south of Zlota-Lipa, in the Dniester section, is recorded by Berlin. Progress by the Russians west of Tarnopol is admitted, but the Russian attacks in the Carpathians and near Lutsk were repulsed, so Berlin says. In Albania the Italian troops are advancing along the Voyuss River and have occupied Tolpelin. A Rome dispatch says: Two villages were stormed and a number of prisoners taken in the fighting along the Voyussa. The Germans report the re-occupation of lost ground near Longueval and Delville Wood on the Somme front in northern France. London admits the German advance but says the attackers have lost

Big Capture By Russians

PETROGRAD, Sept. 1.—In the Carpathian region on Tomnatic mountain our troops captured a whole series of heights. In the region of Dornavitra on the Dumnassian border we made a slight advance westward. During yesterday's battles the Russians captured 280 officers, 15,501 men of whom 2,400 were Germans. They took six guns, 55 machine guns, seven bomb throwers.

Huns Retreat To Mountains

LONDON, Sept. 1.—General Smuts, Commander-in-Chief of the British forces in German East Africa reports under date of Aug. 30 that the German forces of that colony are in full retreat. He announced the occupation of Krogoro the seat of the German provisional government and said he believed the German military headquarters of the provisional government had retired into the mountains.

Italian Offensive In Albania

ROME, Sept. 1.—The Italian troops have begun the offensive in Southern Albania and have occupied Tapeleni, 21 miles south-east of Avlona on the Vorusa river says an official statement issued by the War Office to-day. The Greek garrison has withdrawn from Tapeleni. Austrian attacks in Brenta valley near Gorizia were repulsed an official adds.

Hun Airships Shot Down

PARIS, Sept. 1.—Four German aeroplanes were shot down yesterday on the Somme front and another was captured, the War Office announced to-day. French artillery was very active during the night on the Somme section. The rest of the front in France reports little activity. No late reports of operations in Transylvania. Petrograd claims the repulse of Turkish attack on Tasterzingan, west of Ognott. In Turkish Armenia the route of more than two divisions of Russians, by the Turkish left wing, is reported by Constantinople. Prisoners to the number of five thousand are said to be captured by the Turks.

Constantine's Abdication Doubted

LONDON, Sept. 1.—A correspondent at Saloniki to Reuter's Company under date of Wednesday sends a report that King Constantine of Greece has abdicated, adding pending confirmation, that it must be mentioned with all reserve. The Greek Crown Prince has been appointed regent. Alexander Zeamis supported by ex-Premier Venizelos retains premiership. The despatch says that general mobilization of the Greek army has once more been ordered. Regarding the report from Saloniki that the King has abdicated he throne, the Greek Minister in London said to-day—"I have received no such information. I certainly do not believe such a thing has taken place."

Railway Presidents Back Down

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Convinced that Congress will force them to surrender the Presidents of important western railroads have to-night ordered resumption of the rule of modified freight embargo which was established in preparation for a general railway strike. At the same time the executives announced some defections from the ranks of railway brotherhoods. They declared they had enough men to operate their trans strike or no strike. This was denied by the brotherhood officials.

THE GREEKS SURRENDER GARRISON

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Before the Greek garrison at Saloniki surrendered, Reuter's correspondent cables, three companies of French Colonial infantry marched to the parade ground and stacked their arms in front of the barracks. They were soon followed by two battalions of infantry which took up positions on both sides of the parade grounds and in the rear of the barracks marching guns were posted at several conspicuous points and armored cars were stationed opposite the entrance to the barracks. The Greek soldiers withdrew within the precincts of the building and meanwhile the Greek commander conferred with the French authorities. Just before 11 o'clock at night several unarmed Greek officers accompanied by two French officers crossed the parade ground pavilion at which Sarrajl awaited them. As the hour of eleven struck all Greek troops marched from the barracks unarmed.

SOMETHING UNUSUAL HAPPENING

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Following the two day's silence in telegraphic communication with Athens, during which time sensational rumors of revolution have gained currency, but no confirmation comes of the startling news of the arrival of the Entente Allied fleet with transports at Piraeus. It is believed that the general election is likely to be postponed for a fortnight. The brevity of despatches seem to indicate that something unusual is happening. Development of events are awaited with the greatest curiosity here.

He takes a large vessel from Gloucester up the Mediterranean. It is a long while now since Capt. Howard sailed the ocean blue, but possibly no better man or navigator ever left this port and we wish him success in his new venture.

The Young Turks Are Not Orthodox

Grand Sheriff of Mecca Denounces Their Procedure—Declares Independence of Arabia for Preservation of Islam

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Grand Sheriff of Mecca, chief magistrate of the Holy City, who announced his independence of Ottoman rule in June, supported by Arab tribes, captured the Turkish garrisons of Mecca, and several other cities, has proclaimed a definite rupture between orthodox Mohammedanism and those represented by the committees of union and progress which is now in power in Turkey. In his proclamation, as forwarded from Cairo by Reuter's correspondent, the Grand Sheriff denounces Enver Pasha, Talaat Bey and Djemal Pasha, young Turk leaders, staunch supporters of Germany and among the most powerful figures in Turkey. Djemal Pasha is commander of the Turkish forces in Syria and is reported to have adopted severe measures to crush the revolution. The proclamation follows:—"We were one with the government until the unionists appear. "Since the ruin has overtaken the state, which now has been drawn into this fatal war. We bore with the unionists, not withstanding their departure from the precepts of religion until it became apparent that Enver Pasha, Djemal Pasha and Talaat Bey absolutely ruled Turkey doing whatever they pleased. On one day they hanged twenty-one of the most honorable and enlightened Moslems while children, old men and delicate women were bereaved of their natural protectors and subjected to foul usage, even torture. "That stronger proof of their faithlessness is needed than the bombardment of Holy places, such as Abraham's Tomb, and the killing of persons praying within a Mosque. "God has opened the way to independence and freedom for us. Our independence is complete and absolute. Our aim is the preservation of Islam."

FUNERAL POSTPONED.

The funeral of the Hon. H. J. B. Woods, announced for Sunday afternoon, has been postponed until Monday afternoon at a quarter to three o'clock sharp.

INQUIRY INTO SHOOTING OF IRISH RIOTERS

DUBLIN, Aug. 28.—At the continuation yesterday of the inquiry into the shooting of the Irish rioters during the rebellion last spring, of Sheehy Skeffington, Fred McIntyre and Thomas Dickson, Sir John Simon, chairman of the commission which is conducting the investigation, read a report made by Captain Bowen-Colthurst, who ordered the execution of the three men. The report was made after the arrest of the captain who subsequently was found guilty, but instate by a court-martial. The captain reported he did not believe the guard room to be a safe place for such "desperate men" as Skeffington, Dickson and McIntyre. He said he heard 600 Germans were marching on Dublin. Believing he had the power under law, he ordered the shooting of the three men, though he regarded it as a terrible duty. Adjutant Morgan testified there was nothing incriminating in the documents found on the prisoners. A statement made by Captain Bowen-Colthurst to the effect that the documents showed they were dangerous men was not true, at least so far as concerned the papers he saw. The commission ruled against the raising of the question of Captain Bowen-Colthurst's sanity.

THE ENQUIRY CONCLUDED.

The Magisterial inquiry into the motor accident by which the late E. Scanlan lost his life, came to a conclusion yesterday. It was found that nothing of a criminal character had entered into the matter; nor was there any negligence on the part of the driver. Neither had liquor anything to do with it. It was purely and simply an unfortunate, unforeseen accident.
