BRING ON THE C

The two weeks of objection by the Laurierites to the Borden government have been held up, much necessary legislation has been put on the ice for what?

Simply because a Syme Mackenzie King and of that ilk labor under an aton that with an early would get back to the Borden government.

There is no great volved this time as there case of Reciprocity. Both agreed upon the desired Dominion helping to str British fleet, and the issue is in what way.

There is not the slight why the Borden Government some eighteen months should throw the count turn which is always with a general consent.

The clear remedy is to closure—that is to decide a debate has lasted for a period it can be stopped mediate vote taken.

A Liberal contemporary, the statement that such would be un-British. As a fact a measure of that nature introduced at Westminster and the sponsor of it was man than Gladstone, who Premier.

EMMERSON'S ATT

During a speech on the Hon. Mr. Emerson's matter bitter attack upon English generalization a large portion as coming to the Dominion tating Canadians, and we say—

While many of these general who came here per conception of the people should hold when they shores, there are many of attached to their staffs, ma retainers, who are the it that create great deal of and who cause very much unpleasantness that exist country.

Anyone who has had an ence, such for instance as ites and the members of th tions recently had with H. Duke of Connaught—will witness that his secretary aides were most courteous affable.

It is a trying round of reading and formal function which such personages have and the wonder is that the formly retain their good through it all.

Emmerson, who was on lightweights of the Laurier is not in any event the man size others.

A BRITISH VIEW

The following article in the London, England, Time may be taken as a fair expression of the British view—

Our pride in the sea stretches so deeply by the record of our lost explorers, wind-swept wastes of the Pole, is all the greater to the knowledge that the people are with us in our nation to brook no rivals fleet. That is the great it ranges Canada with a and New Zealand, and supremacy as certain as our positions can ever be. But tions of method are of of portance too, and we welcomed substantial majority who Borden has secured, because the subject known to us those which the admiralty best able to assist. It will thought in any Dominion. Heve, that opinion in this dition unfavorably to the dition of local fleets. Every on the subject known to us development is the natural advance and that no other can enlist the full resources of the patriotism of a governing state. But the creation of fresh naval centers a very different thing from a wasteful dispersion of men ships. Local establishments necessarily be slow of growth are enormously expensive, they depend upon highly
