Close didn't give the Hams a hit while he was in the box, but they scraped up three runs, first through four walks, a wild pitch and a boot. He was hauled out just before the Hams' favor. It was a faster and end of the innings and Hughey sent more interesting battle than its pre in. This twirler allowed three hits, one of them a homer which soared over right field fence, from King's who pulled a man in the last fra bat. Two singles caused another run

Three diseases a However the home team should h to be chalked up. Three disastrous errors in the fourth were chiefly responsible for two more, and McGroarty's home run in the seventh com-

The Brants' pitching staff has blown." It never was a world-beater, being rather a hot-house affair but such as it is, it is gone. Hughey, Chase and Rynerson seem all to the bad, Close was knocked off the rubber yesterday and only Warner and Wal-ker remain. Warner is unlucky while was brilliant, only one lonely clout year should have had such a poor string of pitchers. For three weeks the Brants carried only three pitchers and Warner then was not going well. No sooner did he strike his stride when Close went bad and Cresswell was let out. Rynerson has proved a failure this year though he might come to himself next year. Hughey and Chase have shown nothing, and were signed up after the champion-ship was lost. Next year it is hoped the Brants will not forget the importance of box artists and have a line of good ones from the drop of the hat.

"Slab" Warner is a most unfortunate pitcher. In the last two months he has not pitched a real bad game, while in most of his contests he has held the opponents to four or five hits.
