The Rev. A. F. C. Whalley, M.A., B.D., of Brockville, preached an eloquent and inspiring sermon on the work and office of a minister and the duties owed to him by the congrega-tion. During the offertory, the choir rendered two beautiful anthems, "Watch and Pray" (by Briggs), and "My God Is Any Hour So Sweet," the duet and solo parts being sung by Mr. and Mrs. Boyle.

After the impressive induction service, the congregation retired to the basement of the church where a most partoyable recently. enjoyable reception was given the new rector and his wife. Standing at the door, Mr. and Mrs. Boyle were introduced to the members of the congregation as they passed in. After refreshments were served, the Rural Dean, Rev. Hilliard Smith, acted as chairman, and called on the visiting clerry for speeches. Archdeacon Dobbs recalled the former rectors of the parish, and the splendid work they had accomplished in the past, and urged the congregation to press forward into a more glorious future Canon Fitzgerald, after eulogizing briefly upon the work of Mr. and Mrs. Boyle in their former parish, gave a most stirring and inspiring

Johnson, people's warden, and Mr. James Bur-chell, speaking on behalf of the conchell, speaking on behalf of the congregation, extended a very hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Boyle. The Archdeacon pronounced the benediction and a most inspiring and enjoyable evening came to a close. Other visiting clergymen were Rev. H. D. P. Hurford, of North Augusta, and Rev. John Lyons, of Lyn.
