The American Appeal of Memphis, Tenn., says: "Compared to the next war, the struggle which has just ended will be as a fight between children is to a struggle between giants."

"The world do move!" The Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States is lifting the legal ban against dancing, theatre going, card playing and attendance at the circus.

After one of the most crushing defeats in history, Turkey has risen as a strong homogeneous republic. Eastern Thrace and Constantinople are restored to her, making her once more a European power. Instead of paying reparations, the Turks are the only ones to receive them. The "Great Powers" were beaten by the Turks because of their own moral and intellectual shortcomings. They were beaten, but the Greeks and Armenians pay the bill.
