An upsetting accident occurred at the Eau last evening. A family from Cleveland, named Golder, are occupying Outlook's Inn. The grandmother and grandchild rowed out last evening to the Outlook to fish. While the elderly lady was climbing aboard the yacht, she fell into the water. The little girl jumped in to save her grandmother. Both were rescued but the little girl had a narrow escape.

Mr. Newman, a fine strapping young fellow, just a good sample of Canadian manhood, greyish-brown uniform, arrived in the city to-day from South Africa. Mr. Newman is a Leamington boy. He left home on December 24, and left Halifax on January 28.

When seen by a Planet reporter, he said:—"I was just in one good battle at Hart's River, where we had the some good stiff fight. About the nearest I came to getting hurt was when the man next to me shot and killed."

"I stopped over in Toronto, where we were given a fine reception, being met by Mayor Howland and the 48th Highlanders and deputations from the other regiments."

"Will Craig and Lambert Wigle, of Windsor, came through with me to-day."

Mr. Newman leaves on the 4.15 train for his home in Leamington.

The officers and men of the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Regiments, M. E. H., who have just returned, will not get a decoration, as an army order debar all those who disembarked in South Africa after May 31st.

BLUE RUIN JOHN

Member for East Kent Tells Toronto Papers Doleful and Exaggerated Tale of Woe.

John Lee, M. L. A. for East Kent, was in the city yesterday. Rain in Essex, Kent, Lambton and parts of Elgin and Middlesex, has done great damage to the crops. The bean crop is spoiled, potatoes will not amount to much, and will likely rot after maturity; corn, at least, will be late, and light, while peas, oats and barley are in a doubtful state, and hay is rotting.—Toronto World.

CAUGHT AT LAST

Desperado who has Defied the Authorities of Nova Scotia for Years is Taken.

Halifax, N. S., July 24.—A desperado, who for seven years has been defying the authorities of Nova Scotia, was today captured in the streets of Bridge-town on the Bay of Fundy. Frank Sabean, burglar and highwayman, has been coming and going between Annapolis County and the United States, and all the attempts of the police to take and hold him have failed. He found refuge and security in the mountains of Annapolis.

Seven years ago Detective Power, of Halifax, with a posse, went over the mountain in the early evening and watched all night for Sabean but saw no trace of him, until grey daylight, when he was discovered. The detective was stationed in Sabean's father's house, and waited until Frank arrived at the house and opened the door, when he thrust a shotgun into the desperado's face and ordered him to throw his hands up or he would shoot.

Sabean submitted, and was brought to town and jailed at Annapolis, but he soon escaped from his cell and was not definitely heard from again until two years ago. An attempt was made to capture him but it failed.

This afternoon Policeman Anderson, a 225-pound man, and more than six feet high, saw him in Bridgetown. He went up to him and laid his hand upon him, and immediately got a blow upon his jaw, but the policeman was equal to the occasion, and returned the compliment between the eyes so effectively that Sabean was knocked out and handcuffed before he could get away.

Sabean had intended going to Waterville, but got off the train at Bridgetown by mistake.
