

Lord Graham a Worker.

Lord Graham, who last summer married the only child and sole heiress of the late Duke of Hamilton, thus securing not only a charming wife but the richest matrimonial catch in the United Kingdom, is determined to play a more useful role in life than that of a mere beneficiary of the great fortune of his marchioness. For he has joined one of the biggest ship-building firms on the Clyde as an active member, and although a partner, is so earnest about the matter that he is putting in a sort of apprenticeship in the various departments and is just now engaged in fitting out a deep sea steamer with suction gas engines. He is not merely superintending the job, writes the Marquis de Pontenoy, but is leading a hand, garbed in overalls, taking all the bruises and bumps that come his way.

Lord Graham is the eldest son and heir of the Duke of Montrose, a good looking, wholesome young chap, full of energy and determination to be a useful citizen. He was trained for the royal navy, but was turned down on account of a defect in his hearing. He thereupon dropped his title, joined a big sailing ship as a sailor before the mast, making several long voyages in that capacity, then became third, second, and first mate, and finally won his diploma as a sailing master. Incidentally he learned by personal experience much valuable knowledge concerning the merchant navy, its needs, and its interests. And whenever he speaks about the matter in the House of Commons he always is listened to with respect as an authority on the subject. He served through the Boer war with distinction, tried his hand at politics in South Africa, and gave the thing up in disgust owing to the difficulty of reconciling conscience and self-respect with the necessities of party strategy, and returned to England to wed his present wife, whose other landed possessions include the big Scottish island of Arran.

Principal Peterson of McGill.

Principal Peterson of McGill University has twice been brought before the public eye recently, first as one of the promoters of the new University Magazine, and again as a possible successor of Dr. Story, the late principal of Glasgow University. Principal Peterson is an Edinburgh man. He was born in "Auld Reekie" in 1836 and graduated from the city's famed university at the age of nineteen. He secured a Greek traveling scholarship, and after some time in study in Germany and at Corpus Christi College, Oxford, was appointed assistant professor of the Humanities in his alma mater. On the opening of University College, Dundee, in 1889 he was unanimously chosen principal, and filled in addition the position of professor of classics and ancient history. In 1896 he was chosen principal of McGill University to succeed Sir William Dawson. A man of ripe scholarship and high executive ability, he has done wonders for McGill. He has surrounded himself with a brilliant staff of professors and lecturers and has succeeded in lining up several of Montreal's millionaires in support of the institution. "Pete," as he is familiarly called about the university, rules his students with an iron hand, and for that reason perhaps is not particularly popular among the undergraduates. The boys find considerable delight in teasing him, but, for all, they admire his ability and are by no means backward in voicing their appreciation of his devotion to the college. It is because traces of his reputation as an organizer still linger in Scotland and are augmented by tales of his doings on this side of the Atlantic that Glasgow is now casting longing eyes on McGill's principal.

His Editorial.

It was the practice of a certain London editor some years ago to write his leading article or articles at home the night before publication. The rest of the week he did nothing. One night his article had not come to hand at the office. Ten o'clock came, 11, 12, and still no sign of an article. There was commotion in the office, and at last a messenger was sent to the editor's house. He found him with a glass of brandy and water before him and newspapers scattered about. There was no article written. "What do you want?" asked the editor. "The article for to-morrow," "Didn't I send it?" "No—at least it has not come to the office." "Give me The Times," The Times was found and handed to him, and with unsteady fingers he cut out one of its leading articles. This he stuck upon a sheet of paper and then taking his pen, wrote at the top "What does the Times mean by this?" In that form and with that introduction it appeared next morning as the editor's leading article.

Profitable Waterworks.

Stratford is one of the many thriving places in Ontario where they make a good showing with their municipal undertakings. During the past year the total income of the Stratford waterworks was $23,914, and the working expenses $7,757. This left gross earnings of $16,157. The interest and sinking fund amounted to $9,811. Seven hundred dollars was paid over to the City Council as office rent, and the balance was spent in extensions to the system. Since their purchase by the municipality the waterworks have not cost Stratford a cent, and now the citizens look for lower rates and greatly extended service.

Shortest Will Probat.

What is perhaps the shortest will ever filed for probate in the County of Elgin just recently came before the St. Thomas officials for their disposition. It is not only short, but peculiarly worded, and is addressed to a local insurance agent with whom the deceased, a citizen who died here a few weeks ago, was insured. The last will and testament, which is properly signed and witnessed, and appears to be in every way legal, is as follows: "This is to certify that in my sober senses I have written this, that all insurance is to be paid to my wife, at my death, if the Lord calls me away. God bless you, be a good Christian, and meet me in Heaven."

STURDY FARMERS KEEP OFF ALL CATARRHAL ILLS BY TAKING PE-RU-NA.

MR. GEO. H. THOMPSON,
At Work on the Farm and
Feeling Well All the Time.
Geo. H. Thompson, Craft,
Miss., writes:

"I have been cured of catarrh by your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I had been affected with catarrh of the stomach about all my life, and was taken bad every Spring and Summer. I used several kinds of patent medicines, but they did me no good. I then took a treatment under an M. D., which did me but little good. By this time I had come to where I could eat nothing but a little soup. I had severe pains, had lost in weight and could not do anything. I began taking your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I then weighed 126 pounds, but after taking several bottles of Peruna and one bottle of Manalin, I weighed 166 pounds."

"I am now at work on the farm and feel well all of the time. I eat all I want to and my friends say that I look better than ever before. I will ever praise Peruna for its healing power."

Pe-ru-na is a Systemic Remedy.

If Peruna proves efficient for catarrh in one place, it will be equally potent in any other place, because it is a systemic remedy. The people generally are very much misinformed as to the nature of catarrh. Catarrh is usually believed to be confined to the head, nose and throat. Latterly we sometimes hear of catarrh of the stomach and catarrh of the bowels. Seldom, if ever, do we hear of catarrh of any other organs.

It is not because these organs are not subject to catarrh, nor that catarrh of these organs is not a very common disease, but simply because it is not generally known that affections of these organs may be due to catarrh.

MR. W. J. TEMPLE.
Climatic Ailments Overcome By
Pe-ru-na.

Mr. W. J. Temple, R. F. D. 3, Delaware, Ohio, writes:

"I am a farmer and so necessarily must be exposed to all kinds of weather. About three years ago last winter, I was taken sick with bowel and stomach trouble."

"One doctor called it ulceration of the bowels, another called it colitis. Another doctor helped me temporarily."

"Then a druggist recommended Peruna and I followed his advice. I took altogether five bottles and I consider myself a well man."

"Before using Peruna, it was utterly impossible for me to do a day's work, but now I can do farm work without the least trouble or fatigue. I consider Peruna the best medicine and tonic on the market."

"I had not eaten a meal for five years without distress until I took Peruna. I have recommended it to several friends with good results."

MR. GUSTAV SCHMIDT.
Chronic Catarrh of
Head and Throat Lasted
Thirty Years.

A Letter Praising Pe-ru-na.

Mr. Gustav Schmidt, Spring Valley, Ill., writes:

"I had catarrh of the head and throat for over thirty years. It became worse every year. About three months ago I commenced to take Peruna and Manalin, and now I am entirely cured of that troublesome sickness. Your medicine is surely a blessing to mankind. You can truly say that you have not lived in vain, Doctor, and I thank you for the good you have done me. May you enjoy a long life to help suffering humanity."

Pe-ru-na, the Most Reliable Remedy For All Climatic Ailments.

A TALK TO FARMERS.

THE farmer is the salt of the earth. Without the farmer, the industrial world with all its flurry and immense wealth could not exist for a day.

It is upon the soil that we all depend for our living. No matter how far one may be removed from tilling the soil, or how little he may know about the farmer's vocation, he is vitally dependent upon the things which grow in the soil.

Farming is the basis of all wealth and is the bulwark of all civilization. The farming class is rapidly becoming intelligent and shrewd in business management.

The reuben and the country bumpkin have disappeared and in their stead a practical well-trained business man, capable of the highest form of commercial activity, has arisen.

Peruna is a very popular medicine among the farming class.

Many a family depends largely upon Peruna as a family medicine and the family physician.

Some farmers are far removed from physicians, and in any case they are far more self-reliant and more liable to depend upon a household remedy than people who live in the cities.

Dr. Hartman, who for many years was a farmer himself, and who still owns and manages one of the best farms in the State of Ohio, is a friend of the farmer, and it is with the farmer that the immense bulk of his correspondence is conducted.

The millions of booklets published and distributed by Dr. Hartman every year circulate chiefly among the farming class.

A large number of unsolicited testimonials concerning Peruna come from the farmers every year.

A Necessity in the Home.

J. B. Alexander, publisher of the "Fruit and Floral Guide, a Magazine of Horticulture," published in Hartford City, Ind., says of Peruna:

"I was afflicted with catarrh of the throat and head for over ten years. I was treated by many physicians, but grew worse until I was seldom able to go out in cold weather."

"About one year ago I was advised to try Peruna, which I did, and I am now entirely well of the catarrh."

"Peruna is a necessity in our home. With the first symptoms of a cold we use it, and are never afflicted with catarrh."

"I advise all who are afflicted with catarrh to try Peruna. There is certainly nothing equal to it as a catarrh medicine."

Dr. Hartman interested in farming. Notwithstanding Dr. Hartman's busy professional career, he still continues to be interested in farming. He is the owner and manager of one of the largest farms in the State of Ohio, with several thousand acres of the best tilled land in the Middle West, and with hundreds of the best blooded percheron horses ever imported or raised in this country.

Dr. Hartman relies upon Peruna equally in cases of sickness in his own family.

Pe-ru-na, a Household Friend.

Mr. Henry Schroeder, Esq., Mich., writes:

"I suffered for almost ten years with catarrh of the stomach and all doctoring was of no avail. I took nine bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin and am now entirely cured."

"I recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this disease. It is my household friend."

One of Dr. Hartman's Grateful Correspondents.

Mr. W. R. Callahan, proprietor of Big Hill Farm, and prominent fruit grower and stock raiser, Glenview, Va., writes:

"I write to express my kindness toward you and your good medicine, Peruna."

"I had a very bad spell of sickness and could not eat anything at all. My head, stomach, in fact, my whole body ached, and it looked as though nothing would do me any good. I had almost given up."

"I decided to try a bottle of your Peruna and before I had taken half the bottle my appetite came to me and my head became all right. In fact, I was all right all over. Peruna cured me."

While Peruna is not confined to any one class of people, yet it is probably true that the farming class more than any other, rely upon Peruna for the prevention and cure of all climatic diseases.

INTERNATIONAL S. S. LESSON FOR TO-MORROW.

Abraham Called to be a Blessing.—Read Gen. 10-12.

Golden Text—"I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou a blessing."

St. Peter tells all who have like precious faith to make your calling and election sure. At the age of 75 God appeared to Abraham and said unto him—read verses 1 and 2—Abraham obeyed, and left his old home and his idolatrous kindred, and taking his brother's son, Lot, for he and Sarah, now 65 years old, had no family. They journeyed as God directed into the land of Canaan. Yes—Acts 7, 5—"He gave Abraham not so much as to put his foot on," but promised it to him and his posterity, when as yet he was childless.

By faith he became a sojourner in this land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents; for he looked for the city which hath the foundations whose builder and maker is God.

By faith this old couple, when as good as dead, became the forefathers of multitudes of people as the stars of heaven or the sands of the seas innumerable. Read Heb. 11, 8-16. Abraham's faith in God and His wisdom, love and power, was such that he promptly obeyed God's directions in such a way that "God is not ashamed of them to be called their God; for He hath prepared for them a city." Man is fall-

ed by God from earth to heaven; all who heed His loving call consider themselves strangers here, and pilgrims to the same Holy City, just as Abraham did, yet the meek shall inherit the earth and the heavens also.

We have in Abraham's life a panorama of the first wandering Jew. Wherever he pitched his moving tent he built, first thing, a family altar unto the Lord—have we one?—and with his sacrifices, prayers and practices, was a God-sent missionary amongst the dark, polluted idolaters of Canaan. The papers tell us of a multi-millionaire, well on in years, who said he would willingly part with $200,000,000 for 10 years more of mortal life, it seems a big rent for any poor soul to pay for the use of an old shack of a body for only 10 years, especially when contrasted with eternal life, paradise and heaven, so freely offered us through Abraham's blessed seed, Jesus Christ our Lord.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have eternal life." Let us live the God-led life, like Abraham, and we shall surely get there.

MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS.

SAFE AND RELIABLE.

That the roots of many native plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well proven. Even the untutored Indian has learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked work so he wanted his way to get well as soon as possible that he might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore, he dug "pawpaw roots" for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses. Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine.

It is curing all the various weaknesses and making up, where all other medicines, painful derangements peculiar to women. Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower pelvic region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not be neglected. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvelous benefit in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time. The "Favorite Prescription" is a harmless agent, being wholly prepared from native medicinal roots, without a drop of alcohol in its make up, whereas all other medicines, put up for sale through druggists for women's peculiar ailments, contain large quantities of spirituous liquors, which are very harmful, especially to delicate women.

"Favorite Prescription" contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on each bottle wrapper. It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For weak and sickly women, who are "worn-out," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office, or school-room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

For constipation, the true scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.

For catarrh, the true scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.
