NEW LEADER

Rev. Mr. Salton, of Charing Cross, conducted the services in the Park St. Methodist Church yesterday. This change was made owing to the illness of the paster, Rev. Mr. Routlege.

Miss Hollenrake, the new soloist and leader, took charge of the choir, and made a very favorable impression throughout the congregation. In the morning she and Mrs. Milton Bogart sang a duett, "Must I go empty handed," and in the evening Miss Hollenrake sang a solo. The music was very much appreciated by large congregations. Miss Hollenrake has a fine soprano voice and rake has a fine soprano voice and will be a valuable acquisition to Chatham musical circles

SERIOUS OFFENCE

Police Office Peter Dezelia and Detective Archie Skirving of the Pere Marquette, effected a very clever piece of detective work Saturday and, as a result, two men were locked up in the Police Station awaiting trial on the charge of stealing car posts from the Pere Marquette.

The offenders live in North Chatham and are both married men. Some flat cars used for carrying iron rails for the electric railway were rails for the electric railway were left standing on the Head street spur. On these cars were a number of side posts used for keeping the rails on the cars. The other night these two men, who were in need of firewood, took about $*0 worth of these posts and put them in their woodsheds.

Detective Skirving got trace of one of the men, who, when he learned the police were after him, hid the stolen wood in his pantry. Messrs. Dezelia and Skirving, both of whom were working on the case, found this out and a search of the man's premises bore out their suspicions. Both men were arrested. The man who was first arrested and who put the wood in his pantry claimed the wood was taken by mistake.

The case will come up at the Police

The case will come up at the Police Court next week. The highest punishment that can be given to these men if they are found guilty is 14 years in the penitentiary.

SMYTH VS. HARWICE

Drainage Referee Rankin has given judgment in the case of the Smytth estate vs. Harwich. This is an application by way of motions to set aside and declare void a by-law of the Township of Harwich to improve the Proctor drain on the ground of misdescription in lands assessed alterations in by-law finally passed without authority, the illegal assessment of parts of different lots is one assessment among other grounds. The Referee reports that upon the law and evidence the descriptions are too vague and uncertain and are not too vague and uncertain and are now sufficient under the provisions of the Municipal Drainage Act; also than the provisionally adopted by-law was changed in many material parts, without authority, before its final, passing; also that there is no state-tory power in said Act to assess parts.

of two separate lots under one assess ment and so make one lot liable for the taxes on another and vice versa. The by-law is consequently de-clared invalid and is set aside wit
