"My dear," said the doctor reprovingly, "My dear," said the doctor reprovingly, "you are excited. I gave you some clothes. What have you done with them?" "Oh, I don't know-I must have thrown them away! Where are they?" she solbed. Desprez gropod about in the darkness, "Admirable?" he remarked, "my gray vel-veteen tronsers! This will exactly meet your neccesities."

"Admirable!" he remarked; "my gray vel-veteen trousers! This will exactly meet your necessities." "Give them to me?" she cried faccely; but as soon as she had them in her hands her mood appeared to alter—size stood silent for a moment, and then pressed the garment back upon the doctor. "Give it to Aline," she said -"poor girl." "Nons:nse!" said the doctor. "Aline does not know what she is about. Aline is beside berself with terror; and, at any rate, she is a peasant. Now I am really concerned at this exposure for a person of your housekeeping habits; my solicitude and your fantastic modesty both point to the same remedy—the pantalcons." He held them ready. "It is impossible. You do not understand," she said with dignity. By dist time resues was at hand. It had been found impracticable to enter by the street, for the gate was blocked with masonry, and the nodding ruin still threatened further avalanches. But between the doctor's gar-don and the one on the right hand there was that very picturesque contrivance—a com-men well; the door on the Desprez' side had chanced to be unboiled; and now, through the arched aperture, a man's bearded fac-and an am supporting a lantern were intro-duced into the world of windy darkness, where Anastasic concealed her woos. The tight struck here and there among the tossing apple boughs, it glinted on the grays; but the lantern and the glowing face became the center of the world. Anastasic conceahed back from the intrusion. "This way? shouted the man. "Are you ick from the intrusion "This way!" shouted the man. "Are you all side?" Aline, still screaming, ran to the new comer, and was presently hauled head fore-most through the wall. "Now, Anastasle, come on; it's your turn," said the husband. "I cannot," she replied. "Are we all to die of exposure, madame?" thundered Dr. Desprez. "You can go?" she cried. "Oh, go, go away! I can stay here; I am quite warm." The doctor took her by the shoulders with an oath.

"Stop!" she screamed. "I will put them She took the detested lendings in her hand

My great work is now buried in the fail of my humble roof; it will never be com-ploted—my name will have been writ in water. And yet you find me calm—I would say cheerful. Can your priost do more? By the first glimpse of the day the party sallied forth from the fireside into the street. The wind had failen, but still charloted a world of troubled clouds; the air bit like frost; and the party, as they stood about the heat upon their breasts and blew into their hands for warmth.
