THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MARCH 17, 1899.

Local and Provincial.

St. Patrick's. Only two weeks to Easter. Reserve the 27th for Rev. D. J. Fraser's lecture.

The art association will meet at the home of Mrs Trotter to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The teachers of Acadia Seminary will be at home on Monday afternoon, March twentieth, from 4.15 to 6 o'clock.

In our article on the "King's Daughters" last issue the name of the secretary should have been Miss Agnes Johnson instead of Miss Edith Johnson.

"What's in a name."--Sydney poses a youngster who was christened the following: Donald Dewey Havenstock Archibald Harvard Wolfville Chesley.

Yesterday was one of the most disagreeable days of the season. In the morning a veritable blizzard raged. It was of short duration, however, and before night it rained.

The next lecture of the course being given in St. Andrew's church, will be delivered on Monday evening, March 27th. Rev. D. J. Fraser will speak on "The Religion of Rudyard Kipling."

John Kelly, Hugh Kelly and Foster King, charged with breaking up a religious meeting at Arvonport, were tried before Justice Dunnington, at Kentville, on Saturday last, and committed for trial at the next session of the Supreme Court.

The "King's Daughters" are to give an entertainment in Temperance Hall to-morrow evening. The programme will consist of selections from the phonograph, vocal duets and trios, readings, etc. Proceeds in aid of the work. Admission ten cents. We bespeak a full house.

A lot of Hand-Nut Coal just arrived. COLWELL & BORDEN.

The next recital of the Acadia Bahary course will be given on Friday evening of next week. The programme will consist of vocal solos, duets and trios, also choral selections. The education and piano departments will also be in the programme. The entertainment will no doubt be a highly enjoyable one.

A lecture is to be given in College Hall this evening under the auspices of the college, Y. M. C. A. Rev. W. E. Dyer, of Halifax, will be the speaker, and his subject, "Self-made Orphans."

The Rev. gentleman is well-known as an eloquent and forcible speaker, and no doubt a large audience will greet him. The proceeds of the lecture are to be devoted to carrying on the work of the societies.

A very pleasant time was spent at Temperance Hall last Friday evening when the members of Wolfville Division on invitation, paid a visit to Crystal Head of Hope. The hall was well filled with the young people and their guests, and an excellent programme was well rendered. Under the painstaking management of Capt. Tingley the Band is making most satisfactory progress. It is an organization that has done an immense amount of good work in the past and should have the support of every parent.

Donation parliament opened yesterday with appropriate ceremony.

March sunshine and rain have about spoiled the sleighing for this season, but the wheeling is excellent in most places.

There was a fair attendance at the children's carnival in Aberdeen rink on Saturday evening last. There was a number of pretty costumes. The prizes for boys was awarded to Master John Eastwood, while Misses May and Hazel Woodman got the girls' prizes.

The legislative council passed Mr Wickwire's insurance bill last Monday. This is one of the most important bills of the session. It provides for a standard form of policy in fire insurance and is designed to secure the rights of insured and deprive the companies of many trivial excuses for contesting claims.

$6000 to loan on Real Estate. 18 AVARD V. PINO, Barrister, Wolfville.

Dr. Trotter, president of Acadia University, delivered an attractive lecture in Y. M. C. A. hall last Friday evening, before a large audience. His subject was "Sacred Singing and their Songs; an Evening with Hymns and Hymnists."

Other attractions were a solo by Mr. McLean, the singing evangelist, and a clarinet solo by Mr. Woolard. Rev. Mr. Groutover presided.--Monitor.

There was a Kipling lecture and concert in the opera house last Thursday night, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Literary Society. The "Recollections" and "Hymns Before Action" were rendered by a chorus. The Rev. D. J. Fraser, M. A., B. D., of St. John, delivered a most interesting and luminous lecture on the "Religion of Rudyard Kipling," which was listened to by a large audience with attention and appreciation. Mr. Fraser has set a lot of people to devour Kipling.--Woodstock Press, Feb. 27.

FOR SALE.--2 sets Jubilee Stamps, 1/2c to 50c. Also, 12 8c, and 2 1/2c. Apply Box 31, Wolfville.

On Sunday evening a large congregation gathered to listen to the Rev. Mr. DeWolfe, pastor of the Central street Methodist church of Halifax, a man who is recognized as one of the most earnest and eloquent preachers of this province.

His sermon, dealing with the great certainties of Christianity, held the marked attention of his hearers. It is a privilege to have the opportunity of listening to a man in whom such earnest faith and such philosophical thought are combined with the power of clear cut and logical expression. It is to be hoped that Wolfville may again enjoy the benefit of a visit from the revered gentleman.

At the meeting of St. George's Lodge, No. 20, B. N. S., held last Friday evening the following were elected officers for the ensuing year:

- W. M.--George H. Wallace S. W.--T. L. Harvey J. W.--J. D. Chambers Trusee--J. W. Wallace Secretary--E. A. Dixon S. D.--F. M. Logan J. D.--G. W. Burdell Treasurer--M. W. Piek S. S.--S. I. Baker J. E.--P. W. Godfrey Tyler--G. W. Hunter Chaplain--Rev. J. E. Deakin

The lodge expects to occupy its new hall on the 14th of April where the installation will take place.
