

CLEANED BY THE WAY.
You can't be both truthful and popular.
"What did the boss want when he called you up on the phone?"
"To call me down."
Medicine You Can Trust
There are no family medicines that have such a firm hold on the confidence of the people as those of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous physician and social book author. The superior skill as a physician and the integrity of character for which Dr. Chase is everywhere known stand as a guarantee for his medicines, on every box of which are found his portrait and signature.
"What! Say you ain't going to vote for Hamilton, are you? He's crooked, you know."
"Street—Yes, but he's on the straight ticket."
When a fellow has no bank account to draw on it doesn't do him much good to draw on his imagination.
"It's all well enough to have an iron will," says the Manyung Philosopher, "provided it isn't a pig-iron one."
Surprise to Doctors
Most doctors are astonished at the results obtained by Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema, salt rheum and itching skin diseases which are often considered very incurable by most of the medical profession. The medicinal merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment have gradually become known and it is now a standard and the world over has a record of cures and testimonials in the history of medicine.

Pop—Did he really say I had more money than brains? How ridiculous!
His friend—Why not? Didn't you borrow $5 from him to-day?
She met him in the darkened hall. Said he, "I've brought some roses." Her answer seemed irrelevant, it was, "How could you nose in!"
The Verdict of Public Opinion
In with the best article every time. That's why Putnam's Corn Extractor has been in the lead for the last half century. It cures corns painlessly in twenty-four hours and never fails. Use only Putnam's for corns and warts.
"What crime is he charged with?"
"Stealing a watch."
"Of course he will have to do time for that."

Grocer—You seem to be living most comfortably on canned goods lately.
Mr. Newwood (sadly) Yes, my wife's mother is away.
Racking Pain in the Joints
Early nomination only means who will be elected.

Also every form of rheumatism, neuralgia and sciatica are best cured by Nerviline, the quickest relief for muscular pain yet discovered. It's because Nerviline strikes in and penetrates right to the core of the pain, that it gives such unbounded satisfaction. "I caught cold in my shoulders while driving and suffered great pain," writes G. E. Dempsey of Berlin. "I used Nerviline freely and was soon quite well. I have found Nerviline an excellent remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia as well as for cold in the chest. I recommend Nerviline highly and wouldn't be without it." Price 25c.
What would you suggest as a name for my new yacht?
"Why, it seems to me the 'Floating Debt' would be appropriate."
Great guns! What is that disturbance over there? Earthquake?
"Oh, no; that is merely Carrie Nation and Bishop Potter meeting for the first time."

MESSRS. C. C. RICHARDS & CO.
Gentlemen—I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a loaded car while assisting my men to unload a car of grain. The bridge went down, as well as the load on my back, and I struck on the ends of the sleeper causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy would have broken it. In an hour could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT and the next day was able to mount on business and got about well by the use of a cane. In ten days was nearly well. I can sincerely recommend it as the best liniment that I know of in use.
Yours truly,
C. R. GORDON.
"I presume," said the city boarder, that you got your buttmark from that sour-looking old cow with the crumpled horn and the vicious cast in her eyes?"
"Oh!" interrupted the charming young lady from the city, before the milk-maid could frame a reply, "I thought they got the buttmark from the goat."
"What is the matter with your wife?"
"Her tongue is paralyzed. Cure her as slowly as you can, doctor, because her system will not stand a shock."
"You don't bring your wife with you, Mr. Jones," said the small boy of the house, addressing the guest. "No, my boy. Would you like to see her?" "Yes. Leadways, I would like to see her through." "See her through? What do you want to see her through for?" "Well, Mr. says your wife keeps you under her thumb, and I'd like to see it; for it must be a pretty big one."
A Judicious Enquiry.
A well known travelling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was warranted a 24 hour cure for an adult, and if he answered "Yes," they invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it is a safe cure. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale

Time to Boil Vegetables.
Mrs. Rotor gives the following rules for the time required to cook vegetables. All white and underground vegetable, are, as a rule, rich in woody fibre, which is softened by gentle cooking in soft water. As salt hardens water it should not be added till the vegetables are partly cooked. Satisfy sliced or quartered required 45 minutes, and the same time for new beets, while those kept over a winter require four hours. Green corn only requires five minutes after it begins to boil, long cooking taking away the sweetness. It is not generally known that celery is a very nice vegetable prepared like cauliflowers with a white sauce. Both, if cut into blocks boil tender in 20 minutes, while the Swede variety take 45. Carrots take one hour, and artichokes cut into slices are ready in 30 minutes. Parsnip take an hour, and dry beans should be soaked over night and boiled until they crack. Potatoes require thirty minutes, and these are the principal vegetables at this season of the year.
The Man Who Works Hard
Perseverance and will-power he must have, but whether he has strength and vigor is another consideration. Hard working men usually have irritable nerves and should fortify their systems with a course of Ferrozone, a tonic that rebuilds and revitalizes beyond all telling. It's just wonderful the strength that Ferrozone imparts to broken-down men. It forms new blood, supplies the system with abundant nourishment, and where formerly there was tiredness and lassitude Ferrozone establishes a reserve of energy and vim. Try Ferrozone, -price 50c. per box.

Our Philosophy.
THE DOCTRINE OF PHILANTHROPY—WHAT IS THE BUSINESS OF A CHRISTIAN?—THE DUTY OF ACTIVITY IN WORK FOR THE WELFARE OF OTHERS.
Some easy-going people anxious to evade the responsibilities that social life and civilization impose, excuse themselves from participation in moral reform work on the plea that they are 'minding their own business.' Nothing could be more barbaric or unchristian. One of the fundamental principles of Christianity is the duty of men to do all in their power for the welfare of others. Selfishness is neither commendable or right. Love for our neighbors is part of the Gospel that Christianity preaches. Love cannot be expressed by indolence. It means making the interests of others our own. It means the reverse of what is expressed by the phrase 'minding our own business.' The fact that a religion tells us if it does not help humanity is well expressed in a thoughtful article contributed to the American issue by Rev. Grover C. Clark, D. D., of La Grange, Ill. Discussing the statement of a saloon keeper who defined a Christian as 'one who says his prayers and minds his own business,' Dr. Clark writes: 'The Christian has no right to be content with saying his prayers while his bare faced iniquity fronts at him while it destroys the people. If a rum shop exists within striking distance of him, it is the Christian's business to get on the whole armor of God and get out after that rum shop and smite it and keep on smiting it with the perseverance of the saints, until he smites it to the death. It is his business to do that with every enemy of men.'
No one denies that it is the Christian's duty to save the drunkard, to lift up the fallen and to sustain civil government. Even the saloon-keeper consents that it is the business of the church to take care of the ripened product of his nefarious traffic. But I say it is the duty of the church to save the drunkards, as it is much more the duty of the church to stop drunkard-making.
If it is the duty of the church to lift up the fallen, it is much more her duty to keep men from falling. If it is the duty of the church to support civil government, it is much more her duty to see that she has a clean and honest civil government to support. If it is the duty of the church to pray for men in authority, it is much more her duty to see that she has decent men in authority to pray for. If it is the duty of the church to submit to the powers that be, it is much more her duty to see that the powers that be are ordained of God, not of the devil.
The Christian is not done minding his own business when he is through saying his prayers. We are by far too willing to content ourselves with saying our prayers while the rulers of the darkness of this world run things with a high hand. We are too much afraid of being offensive. We shrink from having a fuss, when we ought to be ready for a fuss at any time in the interests of righteousness. The Christian church ought to be a terror to evil-doers. Unless we make it so we fail of our full duty to God and man.
The Subway Tavern.
American journals, clergymen, and temperance workers continue to criticize severely the action of Bishop Potter in assisting at the opening of the subway tavern, and so giving the countenance of his high position to the bar-room system.
Here are a few paragraphs clipped from articles and quotations in a number of our exchanges:
"Bishop Potter's act is execrable and unpardonable. He has given his great influence to the devil, and has dealt a blow to the whole church."
—Rev. Dr. A. B. Holdrege, Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Ga.
"To give a man more liquor for his money will certainly not lessen the drink habit. To create a pretext for poor, drunken loafers will not improve the laboring man."—Rev. Chas. M. Alford, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.
Bishop Potter must have seen that his act would put money in the pockets of the owners of the saloons that he blessed. What he failed to see was that the reform which this saloon professed to promote is and must always be, from the viewpoint of the church, a sham reform. For the church to choose between evil is for the church to sanction evil.

ILLIUNESS AND Torpid Liver
Headache and stomach troubles are thoroughly cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
Mrs. ROBERT CLARK, former, Chapman, Stone County, Mo., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and would say that there is no medicine that equal them as a cure for stomach troubles, biliousness, torpid liver and headache. I was troubled a great deal with these ailments before using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and they have proven wonderfully successful to my case."
"I would not think of being without a box of these pills in the house, and whenever I feel any symptoms of these disorders I take one of these pills, and they set me all right again. I can strongly recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the troubles mentioned above."
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, are put in 25 cent boxes, at all druggists, C. E. Robinson, Bates and Company, Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous specialist book author, are on every box.
Persons who wish to see Dr. Chase's Book, "The Kidney-Liver Pills," are cordially invited to see it.
The next meeting will be held on Thursday, October 27th, at 3:30 p.m. The meetings are always open to all who wish to become members. Visiting members of other W. C. T. U. organizations are cordially welcomed.
