Grave Injustice Has Been Done

A sensational divorce case pending in the New York courts is that of Charles A sensational divorce case pending in the New York courts is that of the Assensational divorce case pending in the New York Company. From the original action which he brought against his wife, Mrs. Clara W. Smith, has developed an alienation of affection suit for $50,000 damages against James R. Gilmore, president of the Sheppard Knapp Carpet Company. Mr. Gilmore is Division I.—Everett, O. Driscoll, Lockary. named as corespondent and with Mrs. Smith is made codefendant. suit will be vigorously resisted in the courts. Although Mr. Gilmore declares that the action filed against him is based on misrepresentation and that a grave injustice has been done the woman as well as to himself, Mr. Smith says that he trailed his wife and Mr. Gilmore to the woman's apartment at one o'clock one morning, and that when a friend broke down-the door he found Mr. Gilmore in a bathrobe and Mrs. Smith in negligee.
