The Keelhauling Episode.

General Intelligence.

the London Advertiser, who witnessed the late keelhauling in the harbor, says he tried to write a description of the most horrible sight, but it was so revoltingly cruel, so barbarous, so infamously brutal, that he at first gave it up. "Still, it is right that the people of England should know what sort of people even the friendly Egyptians are." The correspondent heard that sailors, one a fireman from the Khedive's yacht, were to be keelhauled on board the Mehmet. All for one of
