The WHIRL of the TOWN

social after the service. Price 10 cents.

Saturday that the suits had been settled,

J. D. Murray, U. McIntosh, H. M. Clark, A. M. MacLeod, ministers, and Messrs John erator of the session during the vacancy Pev. Mr. Hardy of Newcastle was ap-pointed to preach on Jan. 5th, 1902 and declare the pulpit vacant.

> REV. A. M. MACLEOD. Clerk, protein.

We wish all our readers a "Happy New skating and iceboating. Year."

There is talk of a ball in the town hall at to send us items of interest every week.

Toilet paper in rolls at the Advocate weekly paper's most interesting page.

We carry a full line of paper bags from meeting at the Salvation Army Barracks on 176 to 20 fbs. which we sell at right prices. Thursday evening 2nd, at 8 p. m. The sub-

Don't neglect your advertising but commence for spring trade. The smelt fishing on the Miramichi this at F. W. Russell's store, Loggieville one year has been a failure. Mr. Dan'l Aiton is erecting a rotary mill ton and New York by Mr. Russell

We have picture mounts for Passepar. the Miramichi will be pleased to learn of Mr. Edward McGruar who has been touting, in various colours Large sheets his success. 22x28 at 15c.-Cut to any size. At a meeting of the creditors of the cient number present to do the business. The Ladies of the Blackville congregation presented Mrs. Corbett with a nandsome furcoat as a token of regard to her for her | The members of the Methodist Sunday work in church matters.

On page seven will be found an inter. The children were there in force and enesting big game article by Albert C joyed themselves thoroughly. Games were Mersel, the noted artist who spent a few indulged in from five o'clock until supper weeks on the Miramichi last fall.

We notice by posters that Sheriff Call will sell the entire stock of P. A. Noonan, The marriage of Mr. Joseph Hayes of of Chatham at public auction there on Renous, and Miss Mary Tobin of Chelmsford Friday, January, 3rd, at 11 o'clock, a. m. took place at St. Bridget's chapel, Renous gents' furnishings, etc, etc, and will doubt- mony was performed by the Rev. Father less bring good prices and lively bidding. Murdock. The bride looked charming.

The last three or four days of the Christ- paired to the home of the bride where supmas trade were record breakers as far as per was served after which the company enreturns are considered and many merchants joyed a pleasant evening at dancing. who predicted a dull Christmas trade were was fully up to last year's business.

Advocate expire with this issue and we the choir. The singing was unusually in- rence, Mass. trust to have a large number of renewals at spiring. An appropriate sermon was preachonce. Look at the address label on your ed by the rector. The decorations, while paper and see if you do not owe us a dollar. not on ar eleborate scale, were chaste and If so, we would consider it a favor if you in keeping with the season. Mr. G. Burout already large list. Our edition is now which took place off the coast of Newfound- byterian church that he was not forgotten, 1655 copies each week, which places the land in the month of June last, the plaintiff that he was esteemed "as a neighbour,

Mrs. Leighton was presented by her St. Andrew's congregation on X'mas Eve, home in Sussex. boarders on X'mas eve with a very handsome | as a slight but inadequate expression of dozen silver table spoons and a half dozen silver knives and forks.

Bridge, last Thursday night. This is the the said schooner. The two actions were first time the hall has been used and there consolidated. The evidence of the crew of TORONTO, Dec. 29—Alfred Boultbee, was a large crowd present from all parts of Miramichi. The committee in charge of the steamer and of the schooner was taken at Chatham and at St. John, and the case the arrangements are to be complimented the steamer and of the schooner was taken at Chatham and at St. John, and the case the arrangements are to be complimented the schooner was taken at Chatham and at St. John, and the case the steamer and of the schooner was taken at Chatham and at St. John, and the case the school of the schooner was taken at Chatham and at St. John, and the case the school of the schoo the arrangements are to be complimented was ready for argument. Mr. McLeau, on on the success which entertained their ef- behalt of the plaintiff, stated to the court

Mr. P. A. Forsythe of Whitneyville, returned on Dec. 20th from a pleasant and successful hunting trip on the Bartholomew Mr. Lawlor, K. C., appeared for the defendance with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr.

The defendants, the owners of the steamer, to pay eighty per cent. of the amount claimed in both suits, and solicitors' costs.

Mr. Lawlor, K. C., appeared for the defendance with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr.

The defendants, the owners of the steamer, to pay eighty per cent. of the amount claimed in both suits, and solicitors' costs.

Mr. Lawlor, K. C., appeared for the defendance with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr.

The defendants, the owners of the steamer, to pay eighty per cent. of the amount claimed in both suits, and solicitors' costs.

Mr. Lawlor, K. C., appeared for the defendance with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr.

The defendants, the owners of the steamer, to pay eighty per cent. of the amount claimed in both suits, and solicitors' costs.

Mr. Lawlor, K. C., appeared for the defendance with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr.

The defendants, the owners of the steamer, to pay eighty per cent. of the amount claimed in both suits, and solicitors' costs.

Mr. Lawlor, K. C., appeared for the defendance with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr.

The defendants, the owners of the steamer, to pay eighty per cent. of the amount claimed in both suits, and solicitors' costs.

Mr. Lawlor, K. C., appeared for the defendance with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr.

The defendants of the amount claimed in both suits, and solicitors' costs.

A small red heifer, about a year point and a half old strayed to the farm of John Scott, Southesk.

The defendants of the amount claimed in both suits, and solicitors' costs.

The defendants of the defendance with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr. waters with guide Frank B. Bartlett. Mr.
Forsythe succeeded in shooting a splendid specimen of caribou with horns with twenty agreed that on the release being filed with agreed that on the release b points, and is very proud of his trophy. the registrar by the plaintiff, and on pay 2 wpd. Man Bartlett proved himself an excellent ment of the registrar by the planted, ment of the registrar's and Marshal's fees, the bail were to be discharged. Hugh H.

attention. The work was done by a pupil in the convent of congregation of Notre Dame, at Newcastle and not only reflects Presbytery of Miramichi. great credit on the artist but on the convent as well.-Moneton Transcript. Miss Nan Quinn was the artist who print- The Presbytery of Miramich met ed the picture mentioned above and her Blackville on Monday, Dec. 33th. many friends will be pleased to hear of her | There were present Revs. Mr. Henderson

The Boston Comedy Company will open Menzies, H. A. McDonald and John Sina week's engagement in the Temperance clair, elders. Hall here, Thursday night, Jan. 2nd, when | The first business before the session was they will play the realistic drams "Streets the resignation of Rev. Mr. Corbett, of Boston," Edwina Grey is the leading A commission from the congregation lady. The company's many friends here composed of Messrs Mountain and Dale, will be pleased to welcome them, especially the genial Price Webber who has ever been work and their confidence in him. a favorite. The hall has been fitted up to Mr. Corbett adhered to his resignation enable the company to present, its perfor-wishing it to effect at once. It was moved by Rev. Mr. Murray and seconded by Rev. Mr. McIntosh that remance in first class style.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

simile careff letcher. wappe

Social Personal いるかんないいいのかんないい

Miss Doran, Chatham Head, entertained number of friends last Friday evening. Miss Haviland, of Chatham, who has been isiting Mrs. J. H. Phinney, returned home

というとはいいないのできると

Christmas was very quietly spent in town. Mr. Joseph Russell, of the firm of Russell There was considerable driving and good & Russell, Vancouver, B. C., spent Christmas at his former home here. Mr. Russell was returning from a trip to the old We want correspondents in every village

Mr. E. S. Crocker of the Royal Bank o Won't you help us publish an interesting paper and its country page is a country Canada, Bathurst, spent Christmas at his

Mr. John Leslie who is employed in S Adjut Byers will conduct a very special John was visiting his home here last week Mr. C. H. F. Bell, the popular account ant of the Royal Bank of Canada here, has HIDES WANTED. ject, Remarkable answers to Prayer. A been transfered to the head office of that institution at Halifax. Mr. Bell's many There were seven team loaded with smelts Newcastle but compliment him on his meribe paid. ted promotion. Mr. W. F. Duff of Bridgeday recently. Each had a ton of smelts water, N. S., will take his place here. from Tabusintac and were shipped to Boswith R. N. Wyse for the past year has re-Mr. Frank M. Witherell of New York turned to his home in St. John. A few bass are being caught on the North has succeeded to the business of the late. Mr. E. A. McCurdy, Manager of the Edward Phillips, Freight Broker and For- Royal Bank of Canada here, spent Christwarding Agent. Mr. Witherell's friends on mas at his home at Truro, N. S.

Mr. S. Wilson, who has been clerking spending the summer and fall at his home here left last week for New York. On page two will be found a description of a new concentrating mill recently Mrs. A. F. Brown is seriously ill, built at Aspen for D. R. C. Brown. The was somewhat improved yesterday.

Newcastle boy and has been connected Ottawa. with Mr. Brown's enterprises for some Miss Wright of Boston is visiting at Hon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Clark and children School enjoyed a Christmas party and supper in the Temperance Hall Monday night. guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lounsbury. Mr. Jacob Lounsbury of Dumphries, York ary, 1902. Co., has been visiting Mr. G. A. Lounsbury for the past week, was served at about 6.30 and resumed after Mrs. Nelson Lewis and Mrs. Nelson Strang of Bangor, Me., are visiting Mrs. Andrew Mather here.

J. R. Bruce, Esq., Anditor of the I. C. R. was in town vesterday renewing acquaint-The stock is large consisting of dry goods, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock the cere- of the Miramichi and his many friends here were pleased to welcome him.

Mr. George Sutherland of Bathurst was After the ceremony the happy couple revisiting friends in town yesterday. Mr. S. H. Mitchell and Miss Mitchell of Minneapolis, Minn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Stables.

church was well attended. The Anthem for Moncton where she will visit her returns and file their accounts duly attested "O Zion, That Bringest Good Tidings," by brother. A large number of subscriptions to the Stainer, was exceptionally well rendered by Miss Lucy McAulley has gone to Law.

Mrs. R. Lingley and family spent last Mr F H Pickles, of Sussex, was visiting chill presided at the organ. Miss Sargeant his parents here last week.

was kindly remembered by the members of Mr P H Eaton spent Christmas at hi gift, consisting of a carving set, a half their appreciation of her services as organist. A number of ladies and gentlemen called on Christmas evening at the home of the In the action brought in the Admiralty Rev. Wm Hamilton, Rexton, Kent County, Court by the owner of the schooner Winona N. B., and presented him with an address The Advocate still increases in popularity against the steamer Riplingham for the loss and a sum of money. The address assured and the week we have added 25 names to of the schooner, occasioned by collision him that as the former pastor of the Pres. range of Handkerchiefs

Sudden Death of Ex-M. P.

STRAYED.

the defendants, the owners of the steamer, JOHN SCOTT.

In Mr. C. E. Northrup's windows is an oil painting which is attracting considerable attention. The work was done by a pupil OLD COINS,

"A HAPPY NEW YEAR,"

We wish all our friends and patrons a happy and prosperous New Year.

Of every description at the PARK

STORE. Remember we wish

JAPANESE WARE

We cannot itemize, but a visit to the ald

A handsome $25.00 Clock to

PARK STORE,

Geo. S. STOTHART,

HURRAH for XMAS

THE NEWCASTLE BAKREY.

BEAUTIFUL XMAS CARDS. TO ARRIVE: Turkeys, Geese, Ducks

and Chickens, ON HAND, Finnin Haddies,

H. WYSE'S.

The "Pharmacy."

Send your orders for cake, early to and FANCY GOODS.

NEWCASTLE, N. B.

NEWCASTLE DRUG STORE. FRANK R. DALTON, Prop

WANTED .- 5000 HIDES, for friends will regtet that he is obliged to leave which the highest cash price will

> MILLER BROS. Oct. 23.

WANTED

A second class teacher in District No. 11, Whitneyville.

Highland Society to clear this stock.

NNUAL MEETING.

PETER RUSSELL.

CHINAWARE The general annual meeting of the Highhotel, Newcastle, on the 13th day of Janu

JOHN FERGUSON. JOHN NIVEN Esq. President.

NOTICE.

stand will convince you of a clearing sale. COLLECTOR OF RATES & CO. ACCOUNTS, ETC.

Collectors of Rates and other officers bound to make returns to the county, and be GIVEN AWAY. all persons having accounts against the agreeably surprised to find that this year's The Christmas day service in St. Andrew's Miss May McEachern left this morning County, are hereby requested to make their forthwith at this office, preparatory to Secretary & Treasurer's Office, Newcastle, 7th, December 1901, SAMUEL THOMPSON. Sec'y & Treas. Co. Northumberland.

Handkerchiefs

Come and see our range of Handkerchiefs Rich pound cake, plain cake, all kinds in in Cambric linen and great variety, also, Choice Hams, Bacon, Lard, Advocate second on the list of country papers in the province.

There was a ball in the new Hall, Renous Bridge, last Thursday night. This is the list of country on the value of the schooner for the value of the respective of creed and nationality.

That he was esteemed "as a neighbour, a claimed the value of the schooner and outfits, $10,000. There was also another action brought by the crew of schooner for the value of their personal effects lost with the value of their personal effects lost with the said schooner. The two actions were sudden Death of Ex-M. P.

Sudden Death of Ex-M. P.

That he was esteemed "as a neighbour, a claimed the value of the schooner and a friend," and that he enjoyed the respect of the whole community, "irrespective of creed and nationality".

There was a ball in the new Hall, Renous Bridge, last Thursday night. This is the said schooner. The two actions were sudden Death of Ex-M. P. thing for Christmas. Peels, Spices.

The Sargeant Store.

Southesk, N. B.

Stamp for list. FRANK HARDY 3026 Susquehanna Ave. Philladel-Nov. 13 3mos.

Peardon, Charlottetown, P. E. I.)

highest grade.

Licensed by the city of Cambridge, Mass., and Charlottetown, P. E. I. Member of the firm of Stanley Shaw

Work will be done promptly, and all materials and workmanship will be of the Reference by permission to Mr. W. M. Scott, Resident Engineer, Chatham Water Works and Sewerage system.

Reference by permission to Mr. W. M. Scott, Resident Engineer, Chatham Water We cordially invited in the cordial water was all prices from 10c up.

Sausages, etc., etc.

Have you seen our display of Christmas goods! If not, give us a call, and we are sure you will be

We have presents to suit almost everybody, at We cordially invite you to call and examine our

A. E. Shaw's,

Drugisgt.

Newcastle.

It's All Right,"

That is what all say

of our printing.

Anslow Bros.,

PRINTERS.

For Christmas Holidays.

We have opened, for Christmas trade, a line of fancy goods and toys in the McAllister Store. Our stock includes from five cents up. Toy Dishes Toy guns Games

Tin Toys of all kinds, wooden toys, paints, Noah's arks, tool boxes, signation be accepted and that a Presbyterial certificate be granted to Mr. Corbett. -just the thing for boy carpenters, work boxes for girls, mouth organs and musical toys, cups and saucers, mirrors, autograph aloums, cuff and collar boxes, bon-bon baskets and many other articles suitable for Rev. A. M. MacLeod was appointed mod-

> CALL AND LOOK AT OUR STOCK. GEO, STABLES

> > the second of th