Semi-ready Tailoring

A Greater "Lonely" Sale Than Has Been

On Thursday morning, July 2nd, we will place on sale some 325 "Semi-ready" Summer and Fall Garments.

These are the "Lonelies"—the left-overs from a big season's selling of the most-sought-after styles in the semi-ready models for the past season.

We are not going to talk quality—for you know that "Semi-ready" and "High quality" are synonymous.

Briefly, here are some "Lonely" chances:

- 53 Suits at $20.00, nearly every size and physique type in the lot at $15.00
67 Suits at $18.00, to be sold at $13.00
25 Blue and Black Serge Suits that have been selling at $15.00, for $11.00
50 Summer Tweeds and Tropical Worsteds, that were selling at $15.00 and $18.00 and $20.00, your choice for $14.00
50 Spring and Fall Suits of the latest styles, our regular $15.00 lines, clearing all the odds and ends at $11.00
Raincoats, suitable for rain or shine, and good top coats for spring and fall wear. Some 30 in the lot. The prices will be while the "Lonely" Sale is on from $10.00 to $18.75
They are mostly $20.00 and $25.00 coats

This is the biggest and best "Lonely Sale" we have ever put on in Canada. In fact it is the first really earnest clearing sale in three years. Come while we have your size and fancy.

SILVER WEDDING.

Thomas and Mrs. Lynch, of Smithville, Celebrate.

A very pleasant and enjoyable event took place at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynch, Smithville, where about eighty of their relatives and friends assembled to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary received by the couple. The guests were received in the usual affable manner. The guests having assembled and congratulations being over, all were invited to the spacious dining room, which was prettily decorated in silver, green and white for the occasion.

LADIES' OUTING.

Companion Court Ideal at Ainslie Wood Yesterday.

The first annual picnic held under the auspices of Companion Court Ideal, Independent Order of Foresters, took place yesterday afternoon and evening from 4.30 to 9.30 o'clock. The beautiful woods of Ainslie Park had been selected for the event, and no more suitable spot could have been secured. There was a splendid turnout of the members, the attendance being augmented by the presence of several of the companions from the Dundas court. Although rain interfered with the outside arrangements about 6 o'clock it did not dampen the enthusiasm of the picnicers, as all gathered in the spacious pavilion, where tables were spread and laden with the contents of well-filled baskets. After all present had partaken of the delectable delicacies provided by the ladies, the tables were removed, and dancing and chorus singing were indulged in, and everybody forgot about the heavy pattering of the rain in the surrounding woods.
