

To-Day's News.

LONDON, To-day.
The militant suffragettes started a fresh raid yesterday by attacking fire alarms on London streets. Three of which were destroyed. In each case a card bearing words "Vote for women" was attached to the damaged apparatus.

NEW YORK, To-day.
The body of J. P. Morgan lies among his art treasures in his private library. It reached New York in a steamer from France amid a driving rain-storm at dusk. It was taken out of the ship's mortuary chapel, sombre with heavy velvet, and resplendent with silver and gold to a motor hearse which conveyed it from the pier to the library. The dead financier lies in state until Monday when the funeral service will be held.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
A Chinese declaration of independence which took the form of an address to the world, after being read to the Cabinet meeting yesterday was made public. The President and his Cabinet praised enthusiastically the formal recognition of the Republic by the States and awaits only actual organization of the Assembly which meets to-day.

BERLIN, To-day.
The torpedo boat "V. S." grounded in a snow storm near Midway. The steamer Hercules and Cruiser Coeln despatched to the scene but the crew of the torpedo boat had been rescued. The torpedo experiment ship Wurtaria is aground in Swinemund Harbor. All attempts to float her thus far have failed.

LONDON, April 11.
Bulgaria is making a formal claim for the possession of Saloniki, now occupied by the Greek troops, according to a dispatch from Bulgaria. The despatch adds that Bulgaria is taking military measures in support of her claim, while on the other hand Greece is concentrating her army along the railway leading to Saloniki.

All The Tired Nervous Women

CAN FIND A CURE IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Madame Perreault Tells How She Cured Her Kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills, and Found Health and Contentment.

VERNER, Ont., April 11. (Special)
"I am very content. Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured me. These are the words of Madame Eugene Perreault, a highly-respected lady of this place, and mother of a large family. For twenty years she was a sufferer. But, let her tell her own story. "I was always tired and nervous," she states. "I felt heavy and sleepy after meals. My limbs were heavy, and I had a dragging sensation across my loins. My skin itched and burned at night. I had a bitter taste in my mouth, especially in the morning. In twenty years I hardly knew what it was to have a well moment. Then I commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Six boxes cured me."

RILLINGTON STATESMAN, Registered No. 1717.

Examined and warranted sound and free from all hereditary diseases and defects by Erwin Murray, M.R.C.V.S., to His Majesty the King, June 12th, 1912.

The Cleveland Bay, a hardy, powerful, yet fairly light and swift animal, originated through a blending of the powerful charger of the middle ages, with the more active Barb and Arabian. The Cleveland Bay has lots of quality and substance with well defined sinews, large, clean, flat bones of a density equalled only in the Arab and thoroughbred. His long lineage gives him prepotence in impressing his splendid characteristics and soundness of constitution.

Rillington Statesman, registered in England, was bred among his native hills in the Cleveland Valley of Yorkshire. He is an excellent specimen; color, deep, rich bay, height 16½ hands, weight about 1400 pounds. His action is high, free and open, his stride long, temper perfect; he is in all respects a perfect general utility horse, a free cheerful roadster, sure-footed, fearless of all objects and with marvellous endurance. He needs only to be seen to be admired—used to be appreciated.
