Red McGehee says:
When summ'n'
up the speedy guents, don't pass up Shott'n. He's immense! He sure can shake his feet. He makes them jumps from base to base at reg'lar Barney Oldfield pace — darn few throws he can't beat.

Like Milan an' the Georgia Peach he chases pellets made by Reach out there in center field. An' when a fly starts out towards Burt some battin' av'rage sure gets hurt. All flies are hugged an' sealed.

His name ain't any household word, he ain't no quarter million bird nor one o' baseball's clowns.
But he gets out an' does his bit an' gets his little daily bit for ol' Branch Rickey's Browns. St. Loue players may be fine an' still not get much chance to shine — tradition says they're dubs. This boy that makes the baselines scorch would shine out like a red fire torch on those topnotcher clubs.

It's runs that win yer ol' ball games an' that's where Burt cuts in an' claims his little credit slip. When he gets on he goes the route. It's seldom that he falls to scout clear round to that home strip. He'll make his hundred runs a year an' steal his fifty bases clear, an' stretch his one-base hits. If he keeps on he'll get to shine so fans'll worship at his shrine and eat out of his mits.

We know who he will buy it for?
But who will he buy it from? Hundreds of Engagements and Weddings are sealed yearly in Newfoundland with Trapnell's Solid Gold Rings.
Hundreds of friendships and tokens of affection to sweetheart, wife, mother, sister and friend are embodied in lasting embrace with Trapnell's Rings, the popularity of which is based upon their quality, finish and variety and beauty of design. Rings for men, women, baby and miss for every occasion. Gem Rings, Chased Rings, Signet Rings, Birthday Rings. Should you have a desire to get a ring of such design as you may create yourself, or that you had seen somebody else wear, just take your design to Trapnell; there is nothing impossible along these lines for his talented workmen. A splendid assortment of unset stones can be seen if your design calls for a Gem Ring. Ask to be shown the new White Sapphires. They are hard and brilliant like diamonds, so much so that they puzzle experts.

Big Steam Roller Shuts a Barroom.

Crude, but More Effective Than Prohibitionists at Sharon, Pa.

Sharon, Pa., June 9.—Much more effective than the efforts of the prohibitionists here this year, a steam roller put the bar of the Farrell Hot-tel out of commission to-day, and narrowly escaped flattening out several patrons who were imbibing when the big ten-ton machine was wrecked and the barroom was demolished.

The roller was approaching the hot-tel when the engineer lost control of it. The machine cut through the wall and continued through the barroom, taking the bar and fixtures with it, and piling them up in a heap in the far end of the room, where it came to a stop.

Several men who were drinking at the bar made a dive for a rear door, and barely got through in time. No one was injured. The damage is said to have amounted to several thousand dollars.

Lady Sackville is Shrewd in Business

London June 6.—Lady Sackville's selling for a large amount the famous collection of art treasures she inherited from the late Sir John Murray Scott and which has been stored many years in the Scott mansion on Rue Lafitte, Paris, is regarded as another proof of her consummate business ability, considering the demoralized would preserve the collection intact. condition of the antiquity market.

Lady Sackville made it plain that the increased taxation imposed by Chancellor Lloyd George's budget and the heavy death duties made it impossible for her to retain the collection, which, if not sold privately, must go to the public auction room.

Thereupon Jacques Seligmann formed a syndicate to take the collection for $1,250,000.

The gem of the collection is Bouch-er's "Venus," for which Mr. Selig-mann once offered Scott $120,000.

The entire collection is now in Mr.
Seligmann's Paris residence in Paris, St. Germain, where it will be sold privately.

In the famous lawsuit in which Lady Sackville established her right to this collection and other Scott legatcies, she testified that Sir John bequeathed these treasures to her because he believed she shared his love and pride in them and therefore
