At the Crescent.

The Gaumont Graphic depicting war scenes shown at the Crescent Picture Palace last night, ome very interesting and instructive ted by the large audience present. "The Evil Power" a great drama in two reels, produced by the Rex Photo Play Company, is a masterpiece o staging and acting, the power of hypnotism is strongly portrayed in this great feature. "The Great Towel Robbery" is one of the funniest pictures screened and the Crescent patrons certainly enjoyed it. "Slim Gets the Reward," a Western comedy drama acted by the lively Frontier Company, like all the slim pictures is well worth seeing. The same programme will be repeated to-night and on Monday another great two-reeler will be shown, "A Stolen Identity." Mr. J. O'Neil Farrell will appear on
